Dear Parish Family

Thank you to everyone who was involved in a glorious celebration of The Great Three Days. It was also a great joy to celebrate Matt's Baptism and Confirmation at 10.00am on Easter day.

NBN showed some great coverage of our Easter worship here:

<https://www.nbnnews.com.au/2022/04/17/easter-sunday-in-the-hunter/?fbclid=IwAR26P5nav3rwSTcz3bxhpLiOWDvmjmnzOCde6WgWeAJk7oehZZU8PKUIJms>

At the end of the news story, Hannah Taylor, the journalist referred to the Easter Statement on the Environment which Bishop Peter, Bishop Sonia, Bishop Charlie, and I have all signed. You can read the text of it here, and see a full list of signatories.

This week the cathedral has welcomed the RSL and War Widows, and members of the Newcastle Club, for their respective ANZAC Commemoration Services. Our cathedral holds many treasures for the Newcastle community, not least of which is the St Michael or Warrior Chapel, built in 1921 as a designated War Memorial. The Eucharist will be celebrated in the Cathedral on ANZAC Day at 8.30am (as it is, every Monday-Friday morning). If you've never taken the time to explore the St Michael Chapel, or indeed look at some of our other treasures, ANZAC Day is a wonderful opportunity.

There are some very significant events happening over the next few weeks. There are farewells for Mr Peter Guy, Cathedral Organist and Master of Choristers, and the Aid Concert for Ukraine on Saturday 30th April. More information is in the pewslip about these events: please share widely!

A little bit about what's happening:

PETER GUY FAREWELLS: Please join us on Sunday May 22 for Peter Guy's final Sunday in the cathedral. There will be refreshments after Evensong. There will also be a farewell function on Tuesday 31 May 2022 at 6 pm, in the cathedral. Tickets are only $35 each, and there is information in the pewslip about how to book your tickets for this night. In addition, if you would like to contribute to a farewell gift for Peter Guy, please place an envelope in the offertory marked "Peter's Farewell Gift".

UKRAINE AID CONCERT: On Saturday 30th April at 2.00pm, the cathedral is hosting an Aid Concert for Ukraine. This concert has been organised by the Ukrainian community of Newcastle, and I'm delighted that we're able to host this important event. All proceeds are going to support aid work in Ukraine. Information about this concert is in the pewslip, and tickets can be purchased through Sticky Tickets:

https://www.stickytickets.com.au/rp73b/aid_concert_for_ukraine.aspx

Please share the word about this concert widely as well!

RIDE ON: Many people have asked me for details of the poem I read at the end of my sermon on Palm Sunday (and thank you for all your very kind words!). The poem is Ride On by Godfrey Rust. You can read the poem again here:

http://www.wordsout.co.uk/ride_on.htm (and listen to the sermon here:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=aCm4e6nSMFA>). I have often referred to Rust's poetry: I think it is rather wonderful, and you can delve and drink richly from his website, where most of his poetry is published <http://www.wordsout.co.uk/index.htm>

CHOIR: Our choir blogger continues to provide prayerful and thought provoking reflections each week on Saturday afternoon

<https://newcastlecathedralchoir.wordpress.com/>

ATTENDING WORSHIP: Whilst it is no longer mandatory to wear facemasks at worship, you may wish to continue to wear a mask, or wear a mask in certain settings. Please worship how you are most comfortable. Please be mindful of COVIDSafe practices as we gather, and be mindful of our own health and vulnerabilities as well as those in our community. The sacrament is administered in both kinds. You are welcome to receive in one or both kinds. We ask that you do not intinct (dip) the host. Our livestream continues at 8.00am each Sunday morning: <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCXyas2uhJUNOnDetOpPdUOg>

Finally, this week's poem, is by Elizabeth Rooney. I included one of her poems in my pastoral for Palm Sunday. Easter is a season, and St Augustine famously said: "We are an Easter people, and Alleluia is our song." Rooney's poem speaks of the breaking open of the resurrection, which in turn leads to the in-breaking of God in our lives. As the advertising slogan from many years ago said, "it's the way that it shatters that matters."¹

¹ Mystical bonus points if you can name the campaign.

Opening

Now is the shining fabric of our day
Torn open, flung apart,
Rent wide by Love.
Never again
The tight, enclosing sky,
The blue bowl,
Or the star-illuminated tent.
We are laid open to infinity,
For Easter Love
Has burst His tomb and ours.
Now nothing shelters us
From God's desire—
Not flesh, not sky,
Not stars, not even sin.
Now Glory waits
So He can enter in.
Now does the dance begin. Elizabeth Rooney 1924-1999

With my thanks and prayers, for a Happy and Holy and Blessed Easter, Dean Katherine

24 April 2022 – Eve of ANZAC DAY

World War II, Korean and Vietnam War Memorial

Series of 5 works by Reinis Zusters (born 1918 in Ukraine) - the St Nicholas Chapel

There are five separate paintings which depict figurative semi abstract scenes of warfare, its impact on the human condition and the saving grace of Christ, promising eternal life.

The large Panel 3 below is of Jesus Blessing the Dead Soldier and each panel is unified by a large black cross in the rear ground, at first glance depicting roads or military equipment, ultimately symbolising Christ's death and suffering.

The far left and right depict death masks of a man and woman who have lost their lives in War.

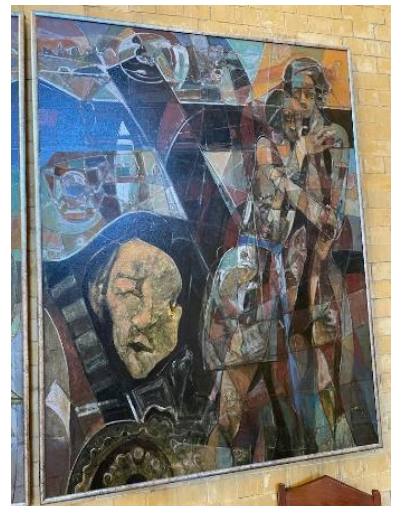

Panel 1 – a soldier is assisted from the battlefield by a mate, in the background are tank and machinery fragments.

Panel 2 – The original bell tower of Christ Church Cathedral, Newcastle Harbour and former BHP Steelworks site form a backdrop for representation of servicemen from the Hunter Valley. Ironically much of the imagery in this panel is no longer part of the landscape of the Hunter.

Panel 4 – The Hunter region represents the 'at home' support of the servicemen by the community.

Panel 5 – a symbolic mother/wife grieve for a lost son/husband.

This is an official War Memorial on the Register of War Memorials of NSW. The Visual Arts Board assisted with installation costs. The memorial was the gift of the Returned Services' League.

The artist, Reinis Zusters, is one of the more important post war painters of his generation and is widely represented in important collections giving this work artistic significance.

Reinis Zusters OAM was born in 1918 in Odessa Ukraine of Latvian Parents. Zusters's father died before he was two years old and he and his sister were raised in an orphanage. He studied at the Riga Art & Technical College, Latvia, from 1935 to 1940 and anatomy at Riga University. Deeply influenced by his Latvian heritage, he admired artist Voldemars Tone (1892-1958).

With his wife and daughter, he emigrated to Australia as a refugee after WWII, moving initially to Perth and then Canberra. A move to Sydney followed with his second wife to take up a position as chief designer with Australian-American architectural firm Austin-Anderson at St Leonards. Zusters undertook further art studies at East Sydney Technical College, where he was exposed to the abstract period of post war Australian and international art. Zusters was a prolific artist over forty years and won many major awards including The Wynne Prize for Landscape (1959) and others. He was represented at no less than three Osaka Triennials and was recipient of the Bronze Prize in the 1990 Osaka Triennial, Japan, achieving his win over 29 000 artists from 81 countries. At the 1993 Osaka Triennial, which included 10 000 entrants from 91 countries, he was awarded a special prize. Zusters' work is deemed highly collectable and is held in many corporate, government and private collections across Australia.

To celebrate the opening of Sydney Opera House in 1973 Zusters was commissioned to design a plate for the occasion. Twenty were cast in 18ct gold and 980 in sterling silver.

He was a professional artist from 1968 and was awarded the Order of Australia Medal in 1994. He married three times and had two daughters. He died on 8 October 1999 and his ashes are buried in the Latvian section, Rookwood Cemetery Sydney.

A competition, The Newcastle Cathedral Memorial Design Competition, preceded the commission being granted to Zusters. A public exhibition of the finalists' maquettes was displayed at the Von Bertouch Galleries, Cooks Hill. Judges included Dean Beal, Bishop AC Holland, Anne Von Bertouch, Professor L Short and Dr William Bowmore.

This memorial was dedicated by Alfred, Tenth Bishop of Newcastle on 11 November 1982.

In memory of all those who served from Newcastle and the Hunter Valley, in World War II, Korea, Malaya and Vietnam and to those who supported them.

Easter Gift 2022

As we make our journey through Lent and Good Friday into the joys of Easter, I invite you to support ABM's Easter Gift Appeal.

This year our Easter Gift will be used to support several Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander ministries. This vital work is carried out in conjunction with the National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Anglican Council (NATSIAC) and Anglican dioceses around Australia. Projects supported this Easter include the much-appreciated ministry of the Rev'd Gloria Shipp among Aboriginal people in the Diocese of Bathurst and key missional work of the Melanesian Brothers in North Queensland and the Torres Strait.

Your gift will also support missional activities in the Dioceses of the Northern Territory and North Queensland, including assistance to the newly formed North Queensland Anglican Aboriginal Ministry Council and Meriba Maygi Zageh Anglican Council (Torres Strait Islander Ministry), as well as the WALK consultative group in the Northern Territory.

If you would like to engage in an individual or group study this coming Easter season, I encourage you to look at Deep Calls to Deep, a 46-day guided journey from Holy Week to Ascension. It is available online at www.abmission.org/resources/abm-apps both as an App, and as a PDF version which can be printed out.

I would also ask you to remember in your prayers our Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander sisters and brothers as they continue to provide leadership and loving service in God's mission.

May you have a joyful Easter season.

God bless,
The Rev'd Dr John Deane
Executive Director
