Dear Parish Family

The closeness of our Easter Day celebrations, and ANZAC Day, I think heightens our awareness of the cost of love and sacrifice. It is always a great privilege to be involved in ANZAC Commemorations, both in the Cathedral, and as part of the wider Community of Newcastle. Over the last few years, the flame that lights the flame at Nobby's on ANZAC morning has been lit and blessed in the cathedral, and then taken to Nobby's in the sanctuary lamp from the St Michael Chapel. This is an incredible responsibility and joins our story with the wider story of remembrance.

It was wonderful to see people venturing out to remember, and the crowds at Civic Park were the largest I have seen for a number of years. David took this lovely photo of Sharon Claydon MP with her father, Kevin Claydon, at Civic Park. Likewise, ANZAC remembrances increase our awareness of war within the world.

The Ukraine Aid Concert tomorrow (30th April, 2pm) in the Cathedral is a powerful opportunity for us to stand in solidarity with the Newcastle Ukrainian community, and support those in need in Ukraine. Information about this concert is in the pewslip, and tickets can be purchased through Sticky Tickets:

https://www.stickytickets.com.au/rp73b/aid\_concert\_for\_ukraine.aspx

Please also share widely the information about Peter Guy's farewells.

A little bit about what's happening:

PETER GUY FAREWELLS: Please join us on Sunday May 22 for Peter Guy's final Sunday in the cathedral. There will be refreshments after Evensong. There will also be a farewell function on Tuesday 31 May 2022 at 6 pm, in the cathedral. Tickets are only $35 each, and there is information in the pewslip about how to book your tickets for this night. In addition, if you would like to contribute to a farewell gift for Peter Guy, please place an envelope in the offertory marked "Peter's Farewell Gift".

SPIRITUALITY GROUP: Our Spirituality Group resumes on Tuesday afternoon at 3.45pm for 4.00pm, in the St Christopher Chapel. We are using Professor Dorothy Lee's A Friendly Guide to Matthew's Gospel. Please contact the office if you would like a copy (or you can buy online!).

CHOIR: Our choir blogger continues to provide prayerful and thought provoking reflections each week on Saturday afternoon
<https://newcastlecathedralchoir.wordpress.com/>

ATTENDING WORSHIP: Whilst it is no longer mandatory to wear facemasks at worship, you may wish to continue to wear a mask, or wear a mask in certain settings. Please worship how you are most comfortable. Please be mindful of COVIDSafe practices as we gather, and be mindful of our own health and vulnerabilities as well as those in our community. The sacrament is administered in both kinds. You are welcome to receive in one or both kinds. We ask that you do not intinct (dip) the host. Our livestream continues at 8.00am each Sunday morning:
<https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCXyas2uhJUNOnDetOpPdUOg>

Finally, this week's poem, is by Catherine of Siena, whose feast is 29th April. I have used this before, notably as we first entered lockdown in 2020. For me, this work captures the essence of Catherine's understanding of the transcendent presence of God. May we always be alert to God with us.

The Sanctuary

It could be said that God's foot is so vast
That this entire earth is but a field on His toe,

and all the forests in this world came from the same root of just a single hair of His.

What then is not a sanctuary?
Where can I not kneel
and pray at a shrine made holy by His presence?

Catherine of Siena 1347-1380

With my thanks and prayers,
Dean Katherine

*Ps: Please share this email with others who would like to hear news of the parish.
To receive our weekly mailings, please contact the Cathedral Office cathedral@newcastlecathedral.org.au to be placed on the email or mail out list.*

St Nicholas

Triptych by John Montefiore, a Memorial to the Hon. Lester Saddington MLC

Panel 1 (LHS) depicts two men and two women's souls being rowed across a waterway with lost souls in the waters underneath alluding to his role as Bishop of the third century Church converting souls to Christianity and to the accreditation of St Nicholas saving sailors lost at sea in a storm. (The allusion to Greek mythology and the rowing of souls across the Styx River to the Elysian Fields is noticeable). Four virgins representing purity are depicted against the background of a rainbow.

The Centre Panel depicts St Nicholas, dressed in Bishop's robes with a mitre and a silver cross, inset with four gemstones. His cape is held by two naked males. Three tubs of brine represent another act accredited to St Nicholas, when he resurrected children who had been murdered and put into brine by a butcher in preparation for making ham during a severe famine. The spirits of the children can be seen leaving the brine and their bodies kneel in thanksgiving before St Nicholas. This act led to his honouring as the Patron Saint of Children in an era when children were unvalued except for their future earning capacity. It led to the giving of presents to children to honour his memory on the Saint's Day (December 6th) in medieval Europe, becoming known in the western world as Santa Claus and combined in the last century with the celebration of Christmas.

Panel 3 (RHS) is of a young boy observing three virgins, each holding a golden ball – an allusion to the Holy Trinity and, to St Nicholas' most famous accreditation – that of anonymously providing dowries for three poor girls who would have not been able to marry because of their father's poverty. As females they were valueless in the society of the third century city Myra, Lycia (part of modern day Turkey) and would have been sold into slavery or prostitution if they could not be married, which significantly adds to the poignancy of his deed. Flowers adorn bare trees. Underneath, the viewer looks past an awning and through the window of a building onto a domestic scene of a couple at a table, the worried parents of the girls, discussing their options and unaware of the generous act of St Nicholas.

Written across the top of the Triptych is written - O Lord, in thee have I trusted, let me never be confounded - this is from the Te Deum.

As patron saint of children, St Nicholas is revered as the patron of sailors, merchants, pawnbrokers and archers. St Nicholas is Patron Saint of no less than five European nations and six cities around the world. He is perhaps the most widely revered Saint in Christendom.

This painting was commissioned by the Saddington Family and a Faculty was given 17 April 1977. This is a Memorial to Lester Birkenhead Saddington OBE, MLC (27.7.1912, Mayfield – 26.9.1962, Newcastle) member of the NSW Legislative Council 1952-1962. Synod Representative 1960-1962 and Chair of Diocesan Liaison Committee, he was also a Freemason, Chairman of the Newcastle Chamber of Commerce, Board member of Hunter Valley Research Foundation and Council Member of Newcastle University as well as a recreational yachtsman and lawn bowler. He was made an Officer of the Order of the British Empire in 1960. Mr Saddington was educated at Cooks Hill High School.

The Artist – John Montefiore was born in Sydney in 1939, attended the Cranbrook School Sydney, studying painting with Justin O'Brien. After the National Art School Sydney (1954-58) he won the prestigious NSW Travelling Art Scholarship (1964). Based in London for three years he worked at the Byam Shaw School of Painting and Drawing and travelled to major European galleries. From 1968 he taught at the National Art School, Newcastle, later moving to the Hunter Institute of Higher Education retiring in 1997.

His +40-year exhibiting career included other commissions; the Mural for the concert Hall in the Refurbished City Hall, Newcastle and three Stained Glass windows installed for the 1983 Centenary of All Saints Anglican Church Kempsey NSW. In 1993 he won the Sulman Prize with his Life Series painting, a large multi panelled work developed over a number of years.

The style is very typical of work of this period by John Montefiore and is similar to the wall frieze around the stage of the refurbished concert hall in Newcastle city Hall, commissioned not long after this work. In two dimensional in style, it is reminiscent of early Christian icons emanating from Orthodox Christian Churches in the first millennia AD.

In June 2010, Dean James Rigney closed the Triptych (during the time of the Royal Commission) in case the viewer might not understand the artist's intent and might see the images of nude children as offensive. *

Easter Gift 2022

As we make our journey through Lent and Good Friday into the joys of Easter, I invite you to support ABM's Easter Gift Appeal.

This year our Easter Gift will be used to support several Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander ministries. This vital work is carried out in conjunction with the National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Anglican Council (NATSIAC) and Anglican dioceses around Australia. Projects supported this Easter include the much-appreciated ministry of the Rev'd Gloria Shipp among Aboriginal people in the Diocese of Bathurst and key missional work of the Melanesian Brothers in North Queensland and the Torres Strait.

Your gift will also support missional activities in the Dioceses of the Northern Territory and North Queensland, including assistance to the newly formed North Queensland Anglican Aboriginal Ministry Council and Meriba Maygi Zageh Anglican Council (Torres Strait Islander Ministry), as well as the WALK consultative group in the Northern Territory.

If you would like to engage in an individual or group study this coming Easter season, I encourage you to look at Deep Calls to Deep, a 46-day guided journey from Holy Week to Ascension. It is available online at www.abmission.org/resources/abm-apps both as an App, and as a PDF version which can be printed out.

I would also ask you to remember in your prayers our Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander sisters and brothers as they continue to provide leadership and loving service in God's mission.

May you have a joyful Easter season.

God bless,
The Rev'd Dr John Deane
Executive Director
