Dear Parish Family

Apologies, as the Dean has been at Clergy Conference there will not be a pastoral this week.

However here is a little bit of what is happening and in the pewslip:

CONFIRMATION: Bishop Peter Stuart will join our Families@Five for baptism and confirmation on Saturday 5th November at 5.00pm. If you, or someone you know (of any age) would like to be baptised and/or confirmed, please contact Veronica Butcher. (Veronica's details are in the directory at the back of the pewslip.)

NEW GUINEA MARTYRS: There will be a special Evensong for on Sunday 4th September, remembering and giving thanks for the witness of the New Guinea Martyrs. Please contact Judy Wotton if you are able to assist with supper afterwards.

UP COMING CONCERTS: In the next few weeks we are hosting the University Choir, and a wonderful Chamber Music concert. We are blessed to be able to enjoy such wonderful music. Please support our visiting artists.

LIVESTREAM: The easiest way to connect to the livestream is through the cathedral YouTube channel:

<https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCXyas2uhJUNOnDetOpPdUOg>

MASKS: We're more aware of COVID in our communities, as well as the flu, and countless colds and coughs and viruses that are doing the rounds, and making up for two years of strong precautions. Please strongly consider wearing a mask in places, including church, where you feel you are not able to adequately maintain physical distancing.

ATTENDING WORSHIP: Please continue to be mindful of COVIDSafe practices as we gather, and to be mindful of our own health and vulnerabilities as well as those in our community.

The sacrament is administered in both kinds. You are welcome to receive in one or both kinds. We ask that you do not intinct (dip) the host.

With my thanks and prayers,
Dean Katherine

Ps: Please share this email with others who would like to hear news of the parish. To receive our weekly mailings, please contact the Cathedral Office cathedral@newcastlecathedral.org.au to be placed on the email or mail out list.

ABOUT THE MUSIC....

This morning our Introit (Morning has broken) celebrates the arrival of Spring – text that rejoices in the miracle of new life. Our Psalm chant was composed by one of the legends of the organ world – George Thalben-Ball. Thalben-Ball was born in Sydney in 1896, but soon moved to England, where he developed prodigious musical skills. One of the remarkable aspects of his career was his performance, at the age of 19, of Rachmaninoff's fiendishly difficult Piano Concerto No 3 – the first performance of the work by an English-trained musician. Closer to home for us, there is a wonderful story of an improvising contest between Thalben-Ball, during a visit to Australia, and Robert Boughen OBE, who was at that time the Director of Music of St Johns Cathedral, Brisbane. The story goes that the loser was to buy a carton of beer for the winner – no doubt to be enthusiastically shared in the days that followed. Robert Boughen went first, and on descending from the organ loft was greeted by an astounded George Thalben-Ball who simply said, 'The beer is yours'. As if to recreate this wonderful meeting of great musical minds, our final hymn is a magnificent melody by Robert Boughen, setting a text that celebrates the coming of Jesus and calls us to be God's agents of love in the world.

Our anthem for Evensong is one of the most beautiful choral works ever composed – the Cantique de Jean Racine of Gabriel Fauré, composed in 1866 by the 19-year-old Fauré for a competition. History doesn't always agree with the judges of music competitions, but on this occasion they got it right – Fauré won the first prize, and the piece has been treasured by choirs and audiences ever since:

*Word of the Highest, our only hope,
Eternal day of earth and the heavens,
We break the silence of the peaceful night;
Saviour Divine, cast your eyes upon us!*

*Pour on us the fire of your powerful grace,
That all hell may flee at the sound of your voice;
Banish the slumber of a weary soul,
That brings forgetfulness of your laws!*

*O Christ, look with favour upon your faithful people
Now gathered here to praise you;
Receive their hymns offered to your immortal glory;
May they go forth filled with your gifts.*

The Flowers in the Cathedral today have been given by Jennifer and Howard Benson giving thanks for the lives of the New Guinea Martyrs.

The red flowers, the liturgical colour of martyrdom.

The 12 Birds of Paradise representing the 12 New Guinea Martyrs.

The Gynea leaves symbolic of spears that the Papuans would use for protection when attacked.

The Monstera leaves for shields, representing the Papuans who were loved and cared for by the martyrs as they worshipped and worked together.

Greenery for the jungle that gave shelter and protection in the last weeks of the lives of the martyrs.

The Martyrs of New Guinea Day – 80 years this year

This Sunday the Anglican Diocese of Newcastle will be commemorating these saints of the church. Please join us at Evensong, 6pm in Christ Church Cathedral

Anglican missionaries, Fr Albert McLaren and Fr Copland King, began work in New Guinea on St Lawrence's Day 10th August 1891 arriving on the north coast of eastern New Guinea, at a place near Dogura. Teaching and medical missions were gradually established along the north coast and in the inland mountain villages. ("Albert McLaren was on the Feast of the Conversion of S. Paul, 25th January 1884, inducted to take temporary charge of S. Paul's, West Maitland for three years. In West Maitland he is chiefly remembered for his work amongst young men and children, amongst the prisoners in the East Maitland gaol, and amongst the poorest of his parishioners." Albert McLaren – A Pioneer Missionary in New Guinea – Frances M Synge 1908)

When the Japanese Imperial Army invaded the north coast of Papua in March 1942, Bishop Philip Strong (Bishop of New Guinea from 1936 to 1962), and many mission staff elected to stay with their people. It is estimated that some 333 church workers of all denominations died for their faith in Papua New Guinea during the Second World War. Of these, twelve were associated with the Anglican Missions, coming mostly from around Popondetta — at the villages of Gona, Sangara and Isivita.

Almighty God, we remember before you this day the blessed martyrs of New Guinea, who, following the example of their Saviour, laid down their lives for their friends; and we pray that we who honour their memory may imitate their loyalty and faith; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen

Parish Trivia Night - November 19th at 6pm

Last year's online trivia was definitely an event to be remembered!

I think the biggest feat was having no technology glitches!!

Let's hope this year there won't be any glitches, either.

More details to follow.

If you've got ideas, suggestions, or prizes you'd like to donate,
just talk to or email Veronica.

Please remember if you can spare a little, we are still asking for donations to our FREE FOOD PANTRY at the Cathedral and also collecting for the Samaritans. Any long life non-perishable items will be very thankfully received.

For we are God's fellow workers.

You are God's field.

You are God's building.

1 Corinthians 3:9

What then is Apollos? What is Paul?

Servants through whom you came to believe, as the Lord assigned to each.

I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the growth.

So neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but only the God who gives the growth.

The one who plants and the one who waters have a common purpose, and each will receive wages according to the labour of each.

For we are God's servants, working together; you are God's field, God's building.

1 Corinthians 3:5-9

Chamber Music at the Cathedral

Spring into Chamber Music at the Cathedral with an optimistic program of chamber music for flute, strings and piano. An energetic pastoral theme ties together a series of works from the Baroque to the 21st century. Starting with a bouncy Italian baroque trio by Giordani, we move to a set of neo-classical miniature dances by Shostakovich. At the centrepiece of the program are four Slavonic Dances by Dvorak: a Sousedská, a Furiant, a Starodávný and a Kolo, in their original sonorous format of piano 4-hands. A virtuosic trio by Edgar Girtain continues the dance theme in quintessential American style. The concert ends with Haydn's "Gypsy" Piano Trio, so-named because its beautiful early movements are followed by a mad-cap finale incorporating a series of rustic Hungarian dances. A highlight of the concert is our cellist's own composition, "Wind in the Pines".

Years Of Women Priests

Movement for the Ordination of Women Australia

30th Anniversary Conference 2022: Unfinished Business

It's thirty years since Anglican women were ordained priests in Australia. But there are still dioceses which limit or refuse to acknowledge women's ordained ministry.

NOW IS THE TIME FOR ALL TO BE ONE IN CHRIST JESUS
