Dear Parish Family:

Dear Parish Family

Thank you to everyone who contributed in so many ways to a wonderful thanksgiving service on Wednesday evening for the life of Her Late Majesty, Queen Elizabeth II. Special thanks to Peter Smith and the office volunteers, Graham Vimpani and our team of welcomers, Matt Whatson our vergers, Suzanne Evans who ensured the flowers were spectacular, our serving team, and David Banney and our Cathedral Choir and members of the Christ Church Camerata for profoundly beautiful music.

The Cathedral is open (as it is daily) for private prayer and remembrance. There is a condolence book near the Baptistry, and floral tributes may be left there too. It has been very moving to see the tributes grow daily. The Royal Family have asked that we might consider making a donation to our favourite charity in memorium. I remain very thankful to Pettigrew Family Funerals for the very generous provision of the condolence book.

The condolence book will remain in place until after the National day of Mourning.

On Saturday, 17th September, the Synod of the Diocese will meet at NEX, and I am sure that there will be more to report following Synod. Please pray for David Atherton, Robert Sharpe, and Ann Taylor who are our Synod representatives.

Please continue to pray for and with our LGBTQIA+ community in this very hurtful and painful time where their validity and integrity is challenged and questioned.

You may have noticed some new posters and signage appearing around the Cathedral and St Peter's. This is part of our ongoing work as a parish, a Diocese, and the national Anglican Church, about increasing our education and information about safety. Over the next few months, Veronica Butcher and I are going to be leading Safe Ministry Training sessions for our volunteers, and updating information and requirements. We're not alone in this: this is part of a programme by the General Synod Office, to strengthen training, knowledge, and standards, across the National church. There's also lots of work happening around ensuring we meet all the compliance standards necessary for WH&S. Please speak with myself or Veronica if you'd like more information.

Sharon Dyett has been away on a much deserved holiday this week, so my apologies if the pewslip isn't up to its usual standard! Sharon returns on Tuesday. Matt Whatson is away for the next two weeks.

A little bit of what else is happening and in the pewslip:

CONFIRMATION: Confirmation classes are starting very soon! Bishop Peter Stuart will join our Families@Five for baptism and confirmation on Saturday 5th November at 5.00pm. If you, or someone you know (of any age) would like to be baptised and/or confirmed, please contact Veronica Butcher. (Veronica's details are in the directory at the back of the pewslip).

BEYOND THE WALL: Stories of LGBTQI+ spirituality and transformation. Hear three speakers from diverse life and faith perspectives, with the opportunity for discussion.

Booking details in the pewslip.

UP COMING CONCERTS: A wonderful Spring Chamber Music Concert will be in the Cathedral on Sunday 18th September. There is also a concert on Monday 19th September in the evening by the Newcastle Strings. The Song Company Returns on September 29 for a evening of music by Indigenous composers Elizabeth Sheppard and Sonya Holowell responding to the Uluru Statement from the Heart. Toronto Brass and Central Coast Brass join with David Drury on Sunday October 9th. Details of all these concerts (and more!) are in the pewslip. Please support our visiting artists.

SOCKS! The response to the sock appeal has been amazing! Thank you for your generosity! Donations are still being received at the cathedral and St Peter's. Foot care is an essential, but often overlooked, need for people who are homeless and vulnerable.

LIVESTREAM: The easiest way to connect to the livestream is through the cathedral YouTube channel:

<https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCXyas2uhJUNOnDetOpPdUOg>

MASKS: Please strongly consider wearing a mask in places, including church, where you feel you are not able to adequately maintain physical distancing.

ATTENDING WORSHIP: Please continue to be mindful of COVIDSafe practices as we gather, and to be mindful of our own health and vulnerabilities as well as those in our community. The sacrament is administered in both kinds. You are welcome to receive in one or both kinds. We ask that you do not intinct (dip) the host.

Finally, this week's poem is the result of a search inspired by a poem I saw this week by Brad Aaron Modlin. A search of his poetry (which included his love for last week's poem by Elizabeth Bishop – what are the odds!) brought me to this beautiful poem by José María Rodríguez Olaizola, SJ. A reminder of the importance of dreamers and prophets and singers of songs to lead us in courage as we raise our voices.

Why Not Me?

Why not me?

Who will bring possibilities if imagination dries up?

Who will drag us to dance if we lose the willingness to live?

Who will play the music that no one composes?

When will there be time for true love?

Where will justice dwell if in our land camps force?

How to listen to a silenced God?

Who will reignite our sleeping compassion?

When will we go out of the cell?

The door is open

It is time that dreamers

silence false prophets

It is time to dance once more

weaving with every step

garlands of bare truth

Let singers throw away their gag

and prudence,

for they are to find the way

for they are to find the way
to shout the good news
to everyone
to every one.
It's time for the good shepherd,
It's your time.

José María Rodríguez Olaizola, SJ

With my thanks and prayers,
Dean Katherine

What does the Lord require

MICAH 6.6.336

David Banney

1. What does the Lord re - quire for praise and of - fer - ing?
5 What sac - ri - fice, de - sire, or trib - ute bid you bring? Do
9 just - ly; love mer - cy; walk humb - ly with your God.

2. Rulers of earth, give ear!
should you not justice show?
Will God your pleading hear,
while crime and cruelty grow?
Do justly; love mercy;

4. Still down the ages ring
the prophet's stern commands:
to merchant, worker, king,
he brings God's high demands.
Do justly; love mercy;

walk humbly with your God.

3. Leaders in wealth and trade,
for whom the worker toils,
think not to win God's aid
if greed your commerce soils.
*Do justly; love mercy;
walk humbly with your God.*

walk humbly with your God.

5. How shall our life fulfil
God's law so high hard and high?
Let Christ endue our will
with grace to fortify.
*Then justly, in mercy,
we'll humbly walk with God.*

Family Ministry Afternoon Tea

October

All the wonderful volunteers who help or have helped with Family Ministry since Covid began are invited to an afternoon tea in the St Christopher Chapel. If you have been thinking of volunteering and would like to meet the team, or if you've volunteered in the past and think you could help again, come along, and say hello. There will be plenty of food, tea/coffee and fellowship.

MISSIONS

Papua New Guinea is one of the most culturally diverse countries in the world. Over 800 languages are spoken throughout the islands, and the national population of 8 million are comprised from over 1,000 distinct ethnic groups.

It is also a country undergoing rapid change, as people move away from their villages to seek work and education in the cities. Because of the complexities of land tenure and the lack of employment opportunities, many end up living in settlements on the edges of the towns.

ABM and AID have had a long relationship with the Anglican Church of PNG (ACPNG) to address many of these challenges.

The Anglican Province of PNG is made up of five dioceses – Aipo Rongo, Dogura, New Guinea Islands, Popondota and Port Moresby. Around 3% of Papua New Guineans identify themselves as Anglican, although in some provinces such as Oro, this figure is as high as 60%.

Beginning in 1885, Australian missionaries were first sent to support the church to deliver its mandate, before a partnership model was adopted with ACPNG to empower local, community-based development. Today, AID works with both the church and Anglicare PNG, the church's social and development arm, to support the building of sustainable communities.

More than 38% of Papua New Guineans live in below the poverty line (receiving less than US$1.90 per day.) There is also high level of gender inequality, with PNG ranking 140 on the Gender Inequality Index among the 155 countries surveyed in 2014. Almost 40% of people over 15 are illiterate (35% are male and 42% female). Only 10% of women and 12.5% of men have received some secondary education. The average number of years a child spends at school is 5.5 years for males and 4 years for females, mostly in primary school.

The current focus of the AID partnership is on building capacity to serve communities in especially rural communities and urban settlement communities in the areas of literacy and numeracy, social inclusion, safeguarding and disaster management. AID also works with the Anglican Church of PNG as it equips itself to provide leadership in addressing social and economic challenges. We also currently support work by Anglicare and ACPNG to address COVID-19, especially in schools and rural and remote communities. Your support of AID enables this important work to take place.

In addition to the work of AID in building sustainable communities, ABM supports ACPNG's Newton Theological College, contributing to building a church to serve Papua New Guineans in the 21st Century.

Wednesday 5th and Thursday 6th October

1pm-4pm

Rosie and Siobhan will be organising the upcoming sessions. Unfortunately I will not be able to assist or attend as I am finishing off a thesis for my psychology study. If there are any volunteers who would be willing to help Rosie and Siobhan in any way, it would be very much appreciated.

Some suggestions:

- an hour of your time to run an activity (games, craft, Bible story, cooking, teach your hobby)
- an hour of your time to wash and dry paint/food containers or assist in tidying up
- provide some afternoon tea snacks and juice for roughly 10 children

*What then is Apollos? What is Paul?
Servants through whom you came to believe, as the Lord assigned to each.
I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the growth.
So neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but only the God who gives the growth.
The one who plants and the one who waters have a common purpose, and each will receive wages according to the labour of each.
For we are God's servants, working together; you are God's field, God's building.*

Chamber Music at the Cathedral

Spring into Chamber Music at the Cathedral with an optimistic program of chamber music for flute, strings and piano. An energetic pastoral theme ties together a series of works from the Baroque to the 21st century. Starting with a bouncy Italian baroque trio by Giordani, we move to a set of neo-classical miniature dances by Shostakovich. At the centrepiece of the program are four Slavonic Dances by Dvorak: a Sousedská, a Furiant, a Starodávný and a Kolo, in their original sonorous format of piano 4-hands. A virtuosic trio by Edgar Girtain continues the dance theme in quintessential American style. The concert ends with Haydn's "Gypsy" Piano Trio, so-named because its beautiful early movements are followed by a mad-cap finale incorporating a series of rustic Hungarian dances. A highlight of the concert is our cellist's own composition, "Wind in the Pines".

The Library Lounge Presents Acts Of Cruelty by Aileen Crowe

Join us for the live launch of 'Acts Of Cruelty: Australia's Immigration Laws and experiences of people seeking protection after arriving by plane' by Aileen Crowe.

The book will be launched by Professor Ian Kerridge Professor of Bioethics and Medicine at Sydney Health Ethics, School of Public Health, University of Sydney and member of the Palaver books advisory group, followed by author Aileen Crowe in conversation with Prof Kerridge and physician and ethicist Prof Paul Komesaroff. Copies of the book will be available for sale and signed by the author.

Acts of Cruelty documents in detail the lived experiences of numerous people and families seeking refuge in Australia as they attempt to navigate the legislative, legal and bureaucratic frameworks and processes that, over two decades, have created an inhumane system confronting those who seek our protection after arriving by plane. Acts of Cruelty also makes important recommendations for improving the system, and cautions that its deliberate cruelty is at risk of poisoning our society.

Bookings essential.

Can the church get behind Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples as they debate a Voice to Parliament?

Hear from First Nations community leaders on the hope & challenges of a Voice.

Uluru Statement from the Heart signatory, Gabriel Bani, a direct descendant of Athe Bari, Head Man of Wagadagam, a sovereign nation in the Torres Strait;

Professor Gracelyn Smallwood OAM Former Member of the Indigenous Voice National Co-Design Group that developed the National Voice proposal under the Liberal government;

Member of the First Nations Regional Dialogue Perth (one of several dialogues held around Australia that culminated in the Uluru Convention), Geoffrey Stokes, who walked out of the dialogue in opposition to the Voice; and Maori Anglican priest Dr Rangi Nicholson, who believes churches should undertake visioning for the nation that contributes to Indigenous values.

This conference is for you if:

You want to understand the Voice to Parliament debate;

You want to understand the concerns about the loss of land rights or culture;

You're ambivalent about a Voice to Parliament; or

You want to think productively about a Voice.

Songs From The Heart is a totally new kind of creative collaboration between The Song Company and Indigenous composers and singers Elizabeth Sheppard and Sonya Holowell. Elizabeth and Sonya are working together with Artistic Director, Antony Pitts, and seven of The Song Company's Principal and Associate Artists to create an a cappella presentation directly inspired by the Uluru Statement from the Heart. As we journey through uncertain times, some things become more certain and necessary than ever. For all of us who live in Australia, engaging directly with the experience of our First Nations hosts is the meaningful way forward into the future. The Song Company has been fortunate to be able to work alongside Indigenous artists and musicians over many years, from William Barton to dance company Karul Projects in recent projects, Four-Colour-Season (2018) and Arms of Love (2021–22).

Songs From The Heart embraces all that The Song Company is renowned for – exciting and meaningful collaborations which build the cultural capital of Australia through both the commissioning process and the performances. The text and principles underlying the Uluru Statement are the direct focus and inspiration of Elizabeth and Sonya's musical creativity. Expect the unexpected from our unaccompanied singers on stage, confronting the past and the present with newly-created music, and be moved by its intense beauty and raw emotion.
