Dear Parish Family

I am delighted to welcome Fr Gary Atherton as our presider and preacher at the Cathedral on Sunday at 10.00am, as he baptises his granddaughter (and daughter of David and Katarina Atherton) Chelsea Maria. Please continue to hold Chelsea and her family in your love and prayers.

Parish Council meets this week, so we'll have our Synod update next week, and then a week later our Parish Council report. If there are issues you would like Parish Council to consider, please speak with one of the parish Councillors.

Over the past few weeks, there has been a notice in the pewslip about a morning BEYOND THE WALL, where three speakers from diverse faith and life perspectives will share stories of LGBTQI+ spirituality and transformation. Numbers are limited, and I encourage you to book soon if you would like to attend. Booking details in the pewslip. Please continue to pray for and with our LGBTQIA+ community in this very hurtful and painful time.

A little bit of what else is happening and in the pewslip:

FAMILIES@FIVE is on Saturday 1st October, at the Cathedral at 5.00pm. Don't love the start of daylight saving? Come on Saturday evening and sleep in on Sunday! It's going to be lots of fun, including a baptism (have I said how much I love baptisms?).

CONFIRMATION: We have a great group coming together, as we prepare for baptism and confirmation with Bishop Peter Stuart at Families@Five on Saturday 5th November at 5.00pm. If you, or someone you know (of any age) would like to be baptised and/or confirmed, please contact Veronica Butcher. (Veronica's details are in the directory at the back of the pewslip.)

UP COMING CONCERTS: The Song Company Returns on September 29 for an evening of music by Indigenous composers Elizabeth Sheppard and Sonya Holowell responding to the Uluru Statement from the Heart. Toronto Brass and Central Coast Brass join with David Drury on Sunday October 9th. Details of all these concerts (and more!) are in the pewslip. Please support our visiting artists.

SOCKS! The response has been amazing! Thank you! It only takes a wet day or two to remind us of the importance of dry, warm feet. Thanks for your generosity. Please place new socks in the boxes at St Peter's and at the Cathedral.

LIVESTREAM: The easiest way to connect to the livestream is through the Cathedral YouTube channel:

<https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCXyas2uhJUNOnDetOpPdUOg>

MASKS: Please strongly consider wearing a mask in places, including church, where you feel you are not able to adequately maintain physical distancing.

ATTENDING WORSHIP: Please continue to be mindful of COVIDSafe practices as we gather, and to be mindful of our own health and vulnerabilities as well as those in our community.

The sacrament is administered in both kinds. You are welcome to receive in one or both kinds. We ask that you do not intinct (dip) the host.

Finally, this week's poem is inspired by Chelsea's baptism on Sunday. I have cited Jan Richardson's work before, and used her work in sermons. This beautiful poem evokes the physical nature of baptism in images which speak to us of the transcendent. May Chelsea, and all who are baptised, always know that they are beloved, blessed, and drenched in love.

BLESSING THE BAPTISM

As if we could call you anything other than beloved and blessed drenched as we are in our love for you washed as we are
by our delight in you born anew as we are
by the grace that flows
from the heart of the one who bore you to us.

Jan Richardson 1967-

With my thanks and prayers,
Dean Katherine

About the Music....

Our music for this morning brings together a range of some of the most beautiful of all music for the Eucharist, spanning six hundred years, from England, Italy and Australia. Orlando di Lasso is regarded by many as the greatest composer of the Italian Renaissance, and movements of his Mass are interspersed with an English favourite - the Communion Service in F of Harold Darke.

Immediately after the gospel the choir sings a plainsong setting - at least 1500 years old - of the text In Paradisum, the text of which captures the drama of today's gospel: "May the angels lead you into paradise; may the martyrs receive you at your arrival and lead you to the holy city Jerusalem. May choirs of angels receive you and with Lazarus, once a poor man - may you have eternal rest." And there is a connection between this ancient verse and the beautiful melody of our gospel hymn ('I heard the voice of Jesus say') – though the melody is known as Kingsfold, it was originally a melody for a lengthy ballad, Dives and Lazarus, which tells today's gospel story in verse, and gives the name Dives to the rich but unmerciful holder of the feast. (Hence Vaughan Williams' beautiful composition Five Variants on Dives and Lazarus, which is based on this melody.) The words of our gospel hymn offer an antidote to the gospel story:

*'I heard the voice of Jesus say,
'Behold I freely give the living water; thirsty one, stoop down and drink and live.'*

The anthem is by the contemporary Estonian Arvo Pärt, one of the best-loved of all contemporary composers, and the inventor of a style described by some as 'Holy Minimalism'. The text is a prayer for peace:

*Grant us peace, O Lord, in our days
For there is none other
Who will fight for us
Save but You, Our God.*

Parish Trivia Night - November 19th at 6pm

Last year's online trivia was definitely an event to be remembered!

I think the biggest feat was having no technology glitches!!

Let's hope this year there won't be any glitches, either.

More details to follow.

If you've got ideas, suggestions, or prizes you'd like to donate,
just talk to or email Veronica.

Family Ministry Afternoon Tea

Tuesday 4th October 2pm October

All the wonderful volunteers who help or have helped with Family Ministry since Covid began are invited to an afternoon tea in the St Christopher Chapel. If you have been thinking of volunteering and would like to meet the team, or if you've volunteered in the past and think you could help again, come along, and say hello. There will be plenty of food, tea/coffee and fellowship.

Kids' Club

Wednesday 5th and Thursday 6th October
1pm-4pm

Rosie and Siobhan will be organising the upcoming sessions. Unfortunately I will not be able to assist or attend as I am finishing off a thesis for my psychology study.

If there are any volunteers who would be willing to help Rosie and Siobhan in any way, it would be very much appreciated.

Some suggestions:

- an hour of your time to run an activity (games, craft, Bible story, cooking, teach your hobby)
- an hour of your time to wash and dry paint/food containers or assist in tidying up
- provide some afternoon tea snacks and juice for roughly 10 children

MISSIONS

Papua New Guinea is one of the most culturally diverse countries in the world. Over 800 languages are spoken throughout the islands, and the national population of 8 million are comprised from over 1,000 distinct ethnic groups. It is also a country undergoing rapid change, as people move away from their villages to seek work and education in the cities. Because of the complexities of land tenure and the lack of employment opportunities, many end up living in settlements on the edges of the towns.

ABM and AID have had a long relationship with the Anglican Church of PNG (ACPNG) to address many of these challenges. The Anglican Province of PNG is made up of five dioceses – Aipo Rongo, Dogura, New Guinea Islands, Popondota and Port Moresby. Around 3% of Papua New Guineans identify themselves as Anglican, although in some provinces such as Oro, this figure is as high as 60%.

Beginning in 1885, Australian missionaries were first sent to support the church to deliver its mandate, before a partnership model was adopted with ACPNG to empower local, community-based development. Today, AID works with both the church and Anglicare PNG, the church's social and development arm, to support the building of sustainable communities.

More than 38% of Papua New Guineans live in below the poverty line (receiving less than US$1.90 per day.) There is also high level of gender inequality, with PNG ranking 140 on the Gender Inequality Index among the 155 countries surveyed in 2014. Almost 40% of people over 15 are illiterate (35% are male and 42% female). Only 10% of women and 12.5% of men have received some secondary education. The average number of years a child spends at school is 5.5 years for males and 4 years for females, mostly in primary school.

The current focus of the AID partnership is on building capacity to serve communities in especially rural communities and urban settlement communities in the areas of literacy and numeracy, social inclusion, safeguarding and disaster management. AID also works with the Anglican Church of PNG as it equips itself to provide leadership in addressing social and economic challenges. We also currently support work by Anglicare and ACPNG to address COVID-19, especially in schools and rural and remote communities.

Your support of AID enables this important work to take place.

In addition to the work of AID in building sustainable communities, ABM supports ACPNG's Newton Theological College, contributing to building a church to serve Papua New Guineans in the 21st Century.

Servants through whom you came to believe, as the Lord assigned to each.

I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the growth.

So neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but only the God who gives the growth.

The one who plants and the one who waters have a common purpose, and each will receive wages according to the labour of each.

For we are God's servants, working together; you are God's field, God's building.

The Library Lounge Presents Acts Of Cruelty by Aileen Crowe

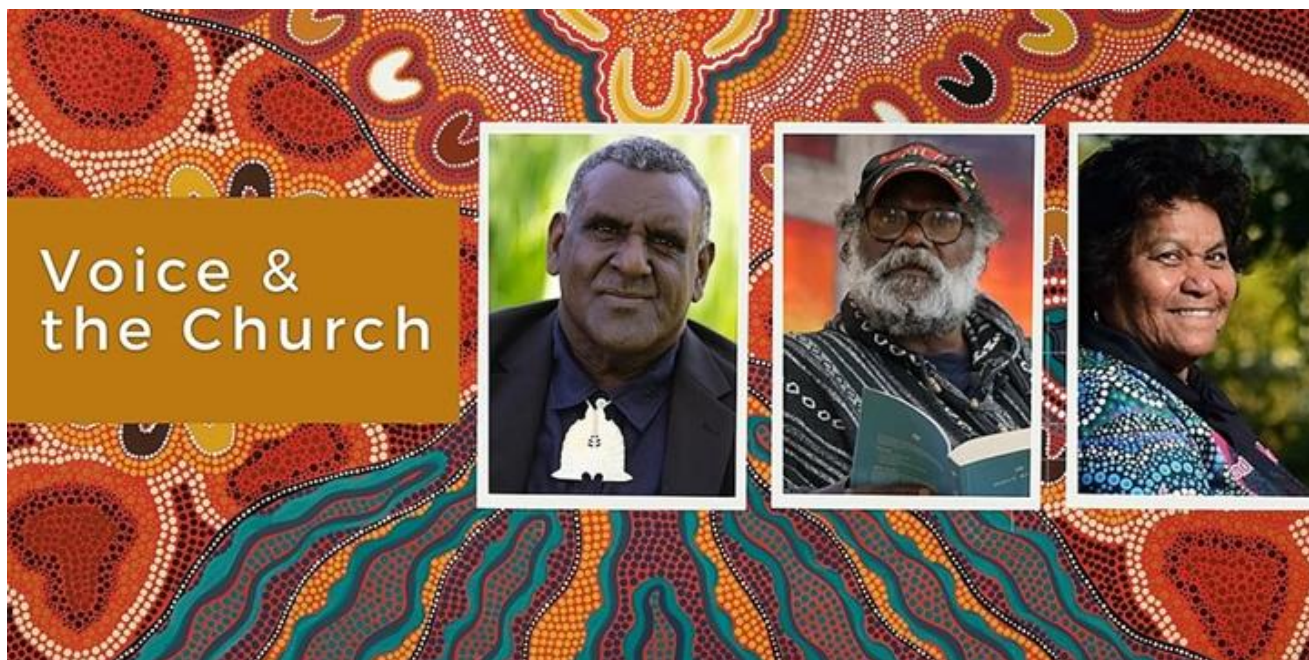

Join us for the live launch of 'Acts Of Cruelty: Australia's Immigration Laws and experiences of people seeking protection after arriving by plane' by Aileen Crowe.

The book will be launched by Professor Ian Kerridge Professor of Bioethics and Medicine at Sydney Health Ethics, School of Public Health, University of Sydney and member of the Palaver books advisory group, followed by author Aileen Crowe in-conversation with Prof Kerridge and physician and ethicist Prof Paul Komesaroff. Copies of the book will be available for sale and signed by the author.

Acts of Cruelty documents in detail the lived experiences of numerous people and families seeking refuge in Australia as they attempt to navigate the legislative, legal and bureaucratic frameworks and processes that, over two decades, have created an inhumane system confronting those who seek our protection after arriving by plane. Acts of Cruelty also makes important recommendations for improving the system, and cautions that its deliberate cruelty is at risk of poisoning our society.

Bookings essential.
