Dear Parish Family

During the week someone said to me that it feels busier around the parish – and it certainly is! After two and a half years of COVID-19 (and let's be clear here: COVID-19 is still with us, it hasn't gone away), it is lovely to welcome back many groups to the Cathedral for services and concerts, and lots of baptisms and weddings within the parish too. As I've said over the last few weeks, we have a wonderful group preparing for baptism and confirmation. Please pray for them, and it would be great if you could attend Families@Five on Saturday 5 November at 5.00pm.

We have some very special services this month. On Saturday at 7.00pm we are hosting the Wave of Light service for the Annual Remembrance Day for Early Pregnancy and Infant Loss. On Sunday 30th October at 3.00pm we will host the Mental Health Candlelight Vigil, with music from the Under Construction Choir. Sunday 30th October we are blessed to have ARIA Award winning musicians Chris Duncan and Catherine Strutt lead us in a Celtic Mass for the great feast of All Saints. Our annual All Souls Day Remembrance will be on Wednesday 2nd November at 6pm.

Newcastle Pride month started on October 7 and runs through till November 6. As I wrote last week, our Parish Council, on 1 September this year, reaffirmed our commitment to being a place of inclusion, moving that: “That Parish Council affirms and commits to Christ Church Cathedral Newcastle and St Peter's Hamilton be a places of welcome, inclusion, affirmation, and safe spaces. Individually, and corporately as the Body of Christ, we have a responsibility to enable and sustain this commitment in our community, ensuring all are welcome.” Sadly, not every place welcomes everyone. Please continue to pray for and with our LGBTQIA+ community.

A little bit of what else is happening and in the pewslip:

SPECIAL SERVICES: Each of our special services connects with someone's lived experience. The gift of welcoming and prayerful presence at these services is one of the ways we can honour that experience. Please share invitations to these services, and if you are able to help with welcoming, please contact the parish office.

WEEKDAY SERVICES: The daily Eucharist is a beautiful way to start the day. The Eucharist is celebrated Monday-Friday morning at the Cathedral at 8.30am, and Tuesdays and Thursdays at 11.00am at St Peter's Hamilton. I am thankful to all the clergy who share this ministry with me.

CONFIRMATION: Classes start on Saturday at 5.00pm – and it's not too late to join! Please contact Veronica Butcher. (Veronica's details are in the directory at the back of the pewslip.) Confirmation will be on Saturday 5 November at 5.00pm during Families@Five.

PARISH PANTRY: Some of you may have heard me tell the story last Sunday of the gentleman who came into the cathedral close to 6.00pm on Saturday, looking for something to eat. Fortunately, we were able to give him some food to tide him over till Community Lunch the next day, where he was assured of a warm welcome and a wonderful meal and food to take away as well. Please consider an extra item for the parish pantry or the Samaritans basket.

SOCKS! The response has been amazing! Thank you! Each fortnight at community lunch, the new socks are offered to our guests. Thanks for your generosity. Please place new socks in the boxes at St Peter's and at the Cathedral.

LIVESTREAM: The easiest way to connect to the livestream is through the cathedral YouTube channel:

<https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCXyas2uhJUNOnDetOpPdUOg>

MASKS: Please strongly consider wearing a mask in places, including church, where you feel you are not able to adequately maintain physical distancing.

ATTENDING WORSHIP: Please continue to be mindful of COVIDSafe practices as we gather, and to be mindful of our own health and vulnerabilities as well as those in our community.

The sacrament is administered in both kinds. You are welcome to receive in one or both kinds. We ask that you do not intinct (dip) the host.

Finally, this week's poem is by Mother Teresa, and was shared with me by Adrian Hibberd. We know of the tireless and compassionate work of Mother Teresa and the Missionaries of Charity. Underpinning her work was her faith, beautifully expressed in both the simplicity and complexity of this poem.

The fruit of solitude is prayer
The fruit of prayer is faith
The fruit of faith is love
The fruit of love is service
The fruit of service is peace.

Mother Teresa 1910-1997

With my thanks and prayers,
Dean Katherine

Ps: Please share this email with others who would like to hear news of the parish.

About the music...

At Evensong this week we sing an extraordinary anthem by Tchaikowsky, whose church music is a wonderful part of the Orthodox tradition. The text is tailor made for Evensong:

Let my prayer be as incense before You;
I lift my hands as an evening sacrifice.

Our morning service begins with a beautiful introit by a Dutch Renaissance composer with an unusual name – Jacob Clemens non Papa. The origin of ‘non Papa’ is mysterious – some have suggested that it was used by his publisher to distinguish him from either Pope Clement VII or a contemporaneous poet, but it is more likely that it was a humorous nickname.

And speaking of curious names, this morning’s Mass setting translates as ‘Hunter’s Mass’. Orlando di Lasso was unquestionably one of the greatest figures of the Renaissance. The story goes that his employer, a Bavarian Duke, was an enthusiastic hunter, and never happy if an overly lengthy Mass interrupted his hunting plans. Hence this Mass, shorter than other Masses of Lasso, but no less exquisite.

Kids' Club

Thank you to all those who helped make Kids' Club a success last week. To Rosie and Siobhan for organising all of the fun activities based around animals. Many thanks also to Lynette Russell, Susan Edwards, Kathleen Stark, and Beth Ravenscroft for their wonderful support in craft, afternoon tea, and clearing away. We had 15 children across the two days, with some bringing friends along as they had so much fun last time. It is fantastic to be such a visible presence in the cathedral, especially for all those that visit during the day. The smiles on visitor's faces as they see what we get up to is contagious. I've included a couple of photos of the day.

*Alfie - a 6-month-old puppy who monitored the door and demonstrated all the things he's learned to a captive audience. The kids learnt what's involved in caring for a puppy dog.

Craft can sometimes get messy but it's all worth it in the end!

An animal scavenger hunt was a huge hit - including with adult visitors who wanted to join in, too!

Wave of Light Service for Pregnancy and Infant Loss Remembrance Day

Taking them home

An exhibition at Toronto Library, by Create and Connect art group and Nikinpa ,with a focus on culturally appropriate sorry business.

The beautiful painted leaves are messages, colours and stories that connect back to country and help people in the grieving process. Each artist has developed a different style in painting leaves and has chosen the colours and patterns that connect with their own artist expression and story.

The leaves are created by the Create and Connect art group which is partnership program between Nikinpa Aboriginal Child and Family Centre and Relationships Australia. Painting the leaves is a partnership between the art group and Forensic medicine team which is part of NSW Health Pathology.

Now when an Aboriginal person passes, a gum leaf is selected for the family to take home and to go with the person who has passed away. These beautiful leaves as well as other art works the Nikinpa art group have created will be displayed as part of the taking them home exhibition.

ANGELINA NOBLE – 19 OCTOBER

Angelina Noble was born in a Queensland Indigenous community around 1879. Abducted as a child she was disguised as a boy and working for a horse dealer when she was noticed by Queensland police and taken to Yarrabah mission outside Cairns. She thrived at the mission school and by 1904 had married Indigenous lay reader James Noble.

Although Angelina's subsequent career tends to be subsumed by that of her husband, her considerable skills were evident in the supporting role she played as he helped the Rev Ernest Gribble to establish a series of missions across Northern Australia. In 1904 the couple travelled together to choose a site for the Mitchell River mission, and from 1908 to 1910 pioneered a mission on the Roper River. In 1914 they were sent to revive the Forrest River mission where they remained until 1932. For the first three years Angelina was the only female missionary on the station. She treated the sick, taught in the mission school, acted as both baker and cook and on occasions overlanded cattle. The Aboriginal women on the mission knew her as 'Mamma'. At the commission of inquiry established in 1927 to investigate the Forrest River massacre, Angelina, fluent in at least five Aboriginal languages, acted as interpreter.

The Nobles returned to Yarrabah in 1932. Apart from a short period at Palm Island, they were to remain there for the rest of their life. Angelina died in 1964, having been a widow for 23 years. The couple's six children survived them.
