Dear Parish Family

It's been a week of varied activity in the parish!

On Saturday evening, the Reverend Melanie Whalley lead a reflective and gentle service, for those who had experienced loss in pregnancy or the early days of life. Thanks to David Banney and Callail Rowley who provided beautiful, reflective music.

On Monday we welcomed the incoming Year 12 students of our four Diocesan schools, for a time of prayer and anointing as they begin their Year 12 journey.

On Tuesday this week, you may have noticed a very large crane in the grounds of the Cathedral. It certainly provoked a lot of conversation around the site, wondering what was happening. This was part of an inspection of the roof, arranged by our insurers. I'm sure the report will be very interesting reading!

Add to the mix, Newcastle Grammar School chapel services, wedding rehearsals and baptism and confirmation preparation, mainly music, and all that happens here and at St Peter's – it's never dull!

We are halfway through our preparation for those preparing for baptism and confirmation. Please pray for them, and it would be great if you could attend Families@Five on Saturday 5 November at 5.00pm.

On Sunday 30th October at 3.00pm we will host the Mental Health Candlelight Vigil, with music from the Under Construction Choir.

Please continue to pray for and with our LGBTQIA+ community.

A little bit of what else is happening and in the pewslip:

ALL SAINTS: On Sunday 30th October we are blessed to have ARIA Award winning musicians Chris Duncan and Catherine Strutt lead us in a Celtic Mass for the great feast of All Saints. This will be a wonderfully joyous occasion of worship, with a Celtic Mass setting, composed by David Banney.

ALL SOULS: Our annual All Souls Day Remembrance will be on Wednesday 2nd November at 6.00pm. A list is available at St Peter's and the cathedral to add names for remembrance.

SPECIAL SERVICES: Each of our special services connects with someone's lived experience. The gift of welcoming and prayerful presence at these services is one of the ways we can honour that experience. Please share invitations to these services, and if you are able to help with welcoming, please contact the parish office.

WEEKDAY SERVICES: The daily Eucharist is a beautiful way to start the day. The Eucharist is celebrated Monday-Friday morning at the Cathedral at 8.30am, and Tuesdays and Thursdays at 11.00am at St Peter's Hamilton. I am thankful to all the clergy who share this ministry with me.

PARISH PANTRY: Thank you for your generous support. Please consider an extra item for the parish pantry or the Samaritans basket.

SOCKS! The response has been amazing! Thank you! Each fortnight at community lunch, the new socks are offered to our guests. Thanks for your generosity. Please place new socks in the boxes at St Peter's and at the cathedral.

LIVESTREAM: The easiest way to connect to the livestream is through the cathedral YouTube channel:

<https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCXyas2uhJUNOnDetOpPdUOg>

MASKS: Please strongly consider wearing a mask in places, including church, where you feel you are not able to adequately maintain physical distancing.

ATTENDING WORSHIP: Please continue to be mindful of COVIDSafe practices as we gather, and to be mindful of our own health and vulnerabilities as well as those in our community.

The sacrament is administered in both kinds. You are welcome to receive in one or both kinds. We ask that you do not intinct (dip) the host.

Finally, this week's poem is by Luke Patterson, a Gamilaroi poet, folklorist and musician living on Gadigal lands. My choice of poem each week is usually inspired by the readings for the weekend to come, and this weekend we hear a wonderful passage from Joel, about sons and daughters prophesying, dreaming dreams and seeing visions. Patterson's poem captures that moment when we are neither fully awake nor asleep (even though the poem title says it is while we sleep). Here the conscious and subconscious dance and meld, and truth is often clearest, as is the vision of the way ahead.

Night Vision (while we sleep)

Beyond the eyelid's flickering light, strange how you teeter. Marsh frogs in their homes shake the shallow waters of these hours. Their song across space naked spills through an opened window.

Here, in this half-sleep dulcet rhythm, lifted,
your mind drifts along currents patterned by gentle moth wing flutters. Everything abuzz, you float, dance, fathom amongst sweet-lipped night flowers.

Colourful quiet, at furthest point from day, the stars brighten, blanketing. A sugar glider slides down a moonbeam to gnaw and sip on summer softened fruit, radiant wattle nectar. You nestle, cozy within a nook-hollow of the great river red gum, swaying, protected by the boobook owl. Tender hoots remind you of the vastness connecting earth and sky.

The whole circus hooped within you, dreamer.

Luke Patterson

With my thanks and prayers,

Dean Katherine

An exciting feature of this week's music will be 'Two men went to pray' - a musical telling of Sunday morning's gospel reading by the wonderful German Baroque composer Heinrich Schütz (we will sing it in English). In this music we hear the Pharisee, represented by the bass soloist, singing with great bravura about his piety and zeal, while the Publican, represented by the tenor, sings lines that show his humility.

We have a wonderful group of children meeting on Saturdays at 5pm to prepare for baptism and confirmation. They have learnt about the many types of families to which we can belong. Some are already part of our St Nicholas Choir family, the Cathedral baptism family, and the Families@Five community. We've talked about Jesus' baptism, and who God might be and explored this beautiful building to find Jesus, God, and symbols of the Holy Spirit. There is much more to talk about over the next two sessions! You can meet them in the pictures below. Please pray for these children by name as they journey to confirmation and the vows they will make on Saturday 5th November.

Prayer Vigil Aboriginal Deaths in Custody

This is a powerful opportunity to humbly come before God in prayer together. We will learn from and deeply listen to Aboriginal Christian Leaders, engage in prayer and lament through words, song and art, and receive inspiration from the strength and determination of Aboriginal communities who take action for justice. #JusticeforWalker #JusticeforFella #BanSpitHoods

Join us on Thursday 3rd November 7:30pm AEDT on Zoom for the 2022 Online Prayer Vigil for Aboriginal Deaths in Custody.

Aboriginal deaths in custody continues to be an ongoing injustice facing Aboriginal families and communities. Over 500 Aboriginal people have died in custody since the Royal Commission into Aboriginal Deaths in Custody released their report in 1991, with 339 recommendations. We grieve the lack of implementation of these recommendations by the Australian Government and the compounded grief that First Nations peoples continue to experience.

We are committed to partnering with God to see the flourishing of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples and communities:

- To see a society, and a justice system that pursues true justice - where all people are supported, valued and empowered.
- Where structural racism is a thing of the past.
- Where all people are given opportunities to flourish, rather than languishing in prison.
- And where children as young as 10 receive love and care rather than incarceration. Please join us in vision, prayer and action.

Sign up with your email. You will be sent the Zoom link closer to the date.

Taking them home

An exhibition at Toronto Library, by Create and Connect art group and Nikinpa ,with a focus on culturally appropriate sorry business.

The beautiful painted leaves are messages, colours and stories that connect back to country and help people in the grieving process. Each artist has developed a different style in painting leaves and has chosen the colours and patterns that connect with their own artist expression and story.

The leaves are created by the Create and Connect art group which is partnership program between Nikinpa Aboriginal Child and Family Centre and Relationships Australia. Painting the leaves is a partnership between the art group and Forensic medicine team which is part of NSW Health Pathology.

Now when an Aboriginal person passes, a gum leaf is selected for the family to take home and to go with the person who has passed away. These beautiful leaves as well as other art works the Nikinpa art group have created will be displayed as part of the taking them home exhibition.

When: Friday, 14 October 2022 - Sunday, 29 January 2023
