Dear Parish Family

We had wonderful celebrations for All Saints and All Souls through this week. Thank you to everyone who was part of this beautiful worship, especially our choir, musicians, and serving teams. I'm also looking forward to a fun evening on Saturday 5th November as we celebrate baptism and confirmation with our Families@Five.

This Sunday sees the introduction of an exciting initiative: Sunday lunch time concerts. There's more information in the pewslip about this, and the first concert is on Sunday at 1.00pm. Entry by donation. Please come and support brilliant local talent.

Christ the King is Sunday 20th November, and there are lots of exciting things planned. Archdeacon Rod Bower will be our preacher in the morning. Please come along and celebrate! (No Supercars, and hopefully no COVID!)

Please continue to pray for and with our LGBTQIA+ community.

A little bit of what else is happening and in the pewslip:

BAPTISM AND CONFIRMATION: Please continue to pray for those to be baptised and confirmed on Saturday evening (5 November) at 5.00pm. Come along and join us!

PARISH PANTRY: Thank you for your generous support. Please consider an extra item for the parish pantry or the Samaritans basket.

CHRIST CHURCH CAMERATA: Mozart and More with Erin Sweetman in Mozart's sparkling Piano Concerto No. 14, Tchaikovsky's dazzling Serenade for Strings and David Banney's colourful Variations on La Folia. Tickets available here: <https://www.cccamerata.com.au/untitled> or at the door on the day.

LIVESTREAM: The easiest way to connect to the livestream is through the cathedral YouTube channel: <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCXyas2uhJUNOnDetOpPdUOg>

MASKS: Please strongly consider wearing a mask in places, including church, where you feel you are not able to adequately maintain physical distancing.

ATTENDING WORSHIP: Please continue to be mindful of COVIDSafe practices as we gather, and to be mindful of our own health and vulnerabilities as well as those in our community.

The sacrament is administered in both kinds. You are welcome to receive in one or both kinds. We ask that you do not intinct (dip) the host.

Finally, this week's poem is by Christina Rossetti. This week's readings include a call to remember, and this past week we have remembered the holy people of God, and this week, we anticipate Remembrance Day on Friday 11th November. Rossetti's more famous poem about remembering is "Remember me when I am gone away" (<https://www.poetryfoundation.org/poems/45000/remember-56d224509b7ae>) but this poem talks of a different remembrance, a remembrance of a beginning rather than an end. Frank Herbert in Dune writes that "A beginning is the time for taking the most delicate care", and yet beginnings of things often slip by unnoticed, as this poem captures beautifully.

I Wish I Could Remember

I wish I could remember that first day,
First hour, first moment of your meeting me,
If bright or dim the season, it might be
Summer or Winter for aught I can say;
So unrecorded did it slip away,
So blind was I to see and to foresee,
So dull to mark the budding of my tree
That would not blossom for many a May.
If only I could recollect it, such
A day of days! I let it come and go
As traceless as a thaw of bygone snow;
It seemed to mean so little, meant so much;
If only now I could recall that touch,
First touch of hand in hand—Did one but know!

Christina Rossetti 1830-1894

With my thanks and prayers,
Dean Katherine

About the music.

Our music this week is a feast on the English tradition, with Harold Darke's beautiful Communion Service and Elgar's popular Ave verum in the morning, and in the evening one of the best-loved of all settings of the Magnificat and Nunc dimittis by a composer with a fabulous name - T. Tertius Noble. There is also Australian music - at Evensong we sing part of Michael Leighton Jones' setting of the Responses. 'MLJ' as he is known, was a member of the choir of Kings College Cambridge, before building an extraordinary career in Australia, which included being the singing teacher of yours truly at the University of Queensland. With no other teacher that I have ever had was the gap between the efforts of student and teacher so vast! And our music begins with an Introit of Novacastrian Ross Fiddes.

Tuesday and Thursday 11.00am

We have a wonderful group of children meeting on Saturdays at 5pm to prepare for baptism and confirmation. They have learnt about the many types of families to which we can belong. Some are already part of our St Nicholas Choir family, the Cathedral baptism family, and the Families@Five community. We've talked about Jesus' baptism, and who God might be and explored this beautiful building to find Jesus, God, and symbols of the Holy Spirit. There is much more to talk about over the next two sessions! You can meet them in the pictures below. Please pray for these children by name as they journey to confirmation and the vows they will make on Saturday 5th November.

Taking them home

An exhibition at Toronto Library, by Create and Connect art group and Nikinpa ,with a focus on culturally appropriate sorry business.

The beautiful painted leaves are messages, colours and stories that connect back to country and help people in the grieving process. Each artist has developed a different style in painting leaves and has chosen the colours and patterns that connect with their own artist expression and story.

The leaves are created by the Create and Connect art group which is partnership program between Nikinpa Aboriginal Child and Family Centre and Relationships Australia. Painting the leaves is a partnership between the art group and Forensic medicine team which is part of NSW Health Pathology.

Now when an Aboriginal person passes, a gum leaf is selected for the family to take home and to go with the person who has passed away. These beautiful leaves as well as other art works the Nikinpa art group have created will be displayed as part of the taking them home exhibition.
