Dear Parish Family

As I was searching for the image for the front of the pewslip this week, I came across a beautiful picture of one of the verses from our Isaiah reading for this weekend, with the caption, “How is it Advent already?!” well, it’s not Advent (yet), but Advent is very close, as next Sunday, 20th November (The Feast of Christ the King) is the Sunday equivalent of our New Year’s Eve, as Advent Sunday begins our next Church year.

After a few years of muted celebrations, we’re making a big weekend for the Feast of Christ the King. You can read more about it below, and in further detail in the pewslip. Please come along and be part of a great day.

Part of our Patronal celebrations will include the blessing of and re-opening on-site of the Cathedral Shop. There has been lots of interest as the new shop has gradually taken shape over the past few weeks – including some unwanted interest from a pair of nesting pigeons! Consequently, you will notice a new statue in the shop, which has encouraged the pigeons to make their nest outside. Suggestions for a name are invited (apparently my suggestion of Owly McOwlface doesn’t quite suit... 😊)

Thanks for your prayers for our LGBTQIA+ community. Thanks also for your prayers for those who were baptised and confirmed on Saturday evening. We had a fabulous fun time, great worship, with over 120 people present to support these incredible young people. Our next Families@Five is Saturday 3rd December, with a strong rumour that St Nicholas himself may appear!

I always try to include a bit of a highlights reel below of the information in the pewslip, and I do encourage you to take time to read the pewslip, as there is much happening. If you would like something in the pewslip, please send it through to the office.

OFFERTORY – SUPPORTING THE MINISTRIES: Thank you for your ongoing and generous support of the ministries of the parish through your regular financial giving as part of your stewardship. Last Sunday, David Atherton spoke about the return of the offertory plate at services at the Cathedral. Over the past few years, many people have moved to online giving (including me). We've had new cards printed which you can place into the offertory plate, to indicate your support through online giving. Please collect these cards from the rear of the Cathedral.

CHRIST THE KING: is Sunday 20th November, and, as I wrote, there are lots of exciting things planned. Archdeacon Rod Bower will be our preacher in the morning, and Canon Garry Dodd our preacher at Evensong. There's the blessing of the shop and a coffee cart in the grounds of the cathedral, where you can purchase some coffee to have with some yummy cakes. Please come along and celebrate.

ADVENT CAROLS AND PREACHING SERIES: Advent Carols mark the start of our journey through Advent, on Sunday 27th November at 7.00pm. During Advent, we will have a special preaching series on "What Christmas means" to different groups within our wider community. Please share both these events, and invite people to join you.

SERVICE OF LAMENT: We are committed to responding to the reality of domestic and family abuse. As part of this commitment, the Diocese is holding a Service of Lament to express our deep sorrow that domestic and family abuse is part of the life of our community and our churches. The service will be held on Monday 28 November at 6pm at Christ Church Cathedral.

CHRIST CHURCH CAMERATA: Mozart and More with Erin Sweetman in Mozart's sparkling Piano Concerto No. 14, Tchaikovsky's dazzling Serenade for Strings and David Banney's colourful Variations on La Folia. Tickets available here: <https://www.cccamerata.com.au/untitled> or at the door on the day.

LIVESTREAM: The easiest way to connect to the livestream is through the cathedral YouTube channel: <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCXyas2uhJUNOnDetOpPdUOg>

MASKS: Please strongly consider wearing a mask in places, including church, where you feel you are not able to adequately maintain physical distancing.

ATTENDING WORSHIP: Please continue to be mindful of COVIDSafe practices as we gather, and to be mindful of our own health and vulnerabilities as well as those in our community.

The sacrament is administered in both kinds. You are welcome to receive in one or both kinds. We ask that you do not intinct (dip) the host.

Finally, this week's poem is by Jeanine Leane, a Wiradjuri writer, poet and academic from south-west New South Wales. I've written before how when I am searching for my 'poem of the week', I often come across unexpected gems. Such was my experience this week, when this poem was below the poem for which I had searched. Frequently we can have a particular relationship with a place that is special to us. Our Indigenous sisters and brothers know this far more deeply in relationship with Country. This beautiful poem reminds us of the importance of reconnecting with the places that feed our souls.

Nurambang yali – Country speaks

It's been too long since I sat on granite in my Country and thought

Too many years since I breathed this air—
Bunyi-ng—ganha
Felt this dirt—Ngamanhi Dhaagun
Smelt this dust—Budha—nhi Bunan

Listened for the sounds of her words that say
'Balandha—dhuraay Bumal-ayi-nya Wumbay abuny (yaboing)'—History does not have the first claim. Nor the last word.
Nghindhi yarra dhalanbul ngiyanhi gin gu
'You can speak us now!'

With my thanks and prayers,

About the music...

At our Choral Eucharist this week we are delighted to welcome the Hunter Wind Quintet – an ensemble of flute, oboe, clarinet, bassoon and French horn. At the time that I invited the quintet to play with us, I had no idea that there is no repertoire in the world for the combination of wind quintet and choir, let alone a setting of the Mass. This morning's Mass setting, then is a response to this problem, composed in the style of Mozart, whose writing for wind instruments broke new ground in the eighteenth century. Our motet, based on the lectionary readings is a foretaste of Advent, which is coming soon! Based on a passage from Revelations, the text was written by Ruth Manz, the wife of the composer Paul Manz, at a time when their three-year-old child was dying:

Rejoice in heaven, all ye that dwell within

Rejoice on earth, ye saints below

For Christ is coming, is coming soon

For Christ is coming soon

E'en so Lord Jesus quickly come

And night shall be no more

They need no light nor lamp nor sun

For Christ will be their All!

Proposal to Withdraw St Aidan's Land Sale Trust

At the Parish Council meeting on 1 September, it was moved that permission be sought to withdraw the St Aidan's Land Sale Trust ($121 307.73 as at 31/07/2022 valuation), for the purpose of payment of expenses associated with property which formed part of the Parish of Hamilton.

Explanation:

St Aidan's Land Sale Trust is one of the Trusts associated with the Parish of Hamilton. The expenditure of this Trust is to meet the costs of essential maintenance on Parish of Hamilton property since the Parish of Hamilton came under the care of the Cathedral parish in 2020.

The Cathedral parish has been paying the expenses associated with the maintenance and upkeep of the buildings of Hamilton parish.

Cost to repairs to the Hall to August 2022 was $82,766. There are some further costs relating to the ceiling of the area being used by Common Circus as a "storeroom", fly screens to the first-floor windows, and $4,100 for repairs to leaking pipe between the Church and hall.

Repairs to St Peter's roof and over vestry - $9,889 ex GST. A significant amount of work was undertaken to make the property at Percy St suitable for leasing. $6,135 was spent in Jun 2020. Remaining funds will be spent to maintain Hamilton Parish properties, including electrical work at St Peter's. This is Hamilton money, being expended on Hamilton property assets.

Stewardship

Thank you for your ongoing faithful financial support of the mission and ministry of the parish. With no opportunities for additional fund raising, your giving is greatly appreciated. In this time, the best way to exercise our stewardship, to support the work of the parish, is through electronic giving. Our stewardship is an expression of our thankfulness to God, offering as we have received.

Name: Electronic Giving Account BSB: 705-077 Account: 00040917

(please include all 8 digits) Please include your Initial & Surname in the reference line, if required. Please ask the sidespersons at the Cathedral or St Peter's if you would like a set of stewardship envelopes. If you would like information on how you can contribute to the Music Fund, Missions, and other ministries, please contact the parish office so we can share those details with you. Thank you for your generosity, which supports ministry now and in the future.

Taking them home

An exhibition at Toronto Library, by Create and Connect art group and Nikinpa ,with a focus on culturally appropriate sorry business.

The beautiful painted leaves are messages, colours and stories that connect back to country and help people in the grieving process. Each artist has developed a different style in painting leaves and has chosen the colours and patterns that connect with their own artist expression and story.

The leaves are created by the Create and Connect art group which is partnership program between Nikinpa Aboriginal Child and Family Centre and Relationships Australia. Painting the leaves is a partnership between the art group and Forensic medicine team which is part of NSW Health Pathology.

Now when an Aboriginal person passes, a gum leaf is selected for the family to take home and to go with the person who has passed away. These beautiful leaves as well as other art works the Nikinpa art group have created will be displayed as part of the taking them home exhibition.

When: Friday, 14 October 2022 - Sunday, 29 January 2023
