Dear Parish Family

All of a sudden, it's the end of January! 2023 is well and truly underway, and so is our planning for the year ahead. I am thankful to Bishop Peter Stuart for his care for the Cathedral community, and enabling me to take some annual leave. I am also thankful to Archdeacon Rod Bower for his continued involvement in our parish life. If you missed Fr Rod's sermon last Sunday, I encourage you to find it on our YouTube channel and listen. I was enthralled!

This Sunday we celebrate the Feast of the Presentation of Christ in the Temple, and welcome back the Reverend Angela Peverell, as our Presider and Preacher at 8.00am and 10.00am. I am also very happy to welcome the Reverend Christopher Waterhouse who will assist at our 10.00am Mass. Fr Christopher is the Precentor and Chaplain for the Arts at St David's Cathedral, Hobart.

PRAYERS: Please continue to hold affected by flood in your prayers. The Bishop of the Murray has been sharing photos online of the floods arriving in that Diocese. Though the rain event was months ago, the flood continues. Please also pray for those impacted by storm and fire.
Thank you also for your prayers for our LGBTQIA+ community.

WHAT'S HAPPENING...

175th ANNIVERSARY OF THE ARRIVAL OF BISHOP WILLIAM TYRRELL: Evensong at 6.00pm on Sunday will mark the 175th Anniversary of the Installation of the Right Reverend Dr William Tyrrell, D.D, as first Bishop of Newcastle. Bishop Charlie Murry will be the Preacher. We will also bless the beautiful artwork by the Reverend Canon Aunty Di Langham and her family, which is their gift to the cathedral. More details in the pewslip.

BLESSING OF THE BACKPACKS: With the start of the school year, so too is our annual 'Blessing of the Backpacks'. Saturday 4th February at 5.00pm – a service for everyone returning or beginning education or work. Bring your backpack (or laptop bag or briefcase) and stay for pizza afterwards!

PANCAKES: Lent is coming, but before then PANCAKES! Thanks to Suzanne and the team for this initiative. Information in the pewslip, tickets available at all services.

OPENING OF THE LAW TERM: One of the great privileges we have as a Cathedral community is hosting special Civic celebrations. On Monday 30th January, the Opening of the Law Term service will be held in the cathedral. Everyone is welcome. If you have an interest in justice, come along.

CATHEDRAL OFFICE: The Cathedral Office will be closed on Friday 27th January.

COMMUNITY LUNCH: resumes on Sunday. Please contact Andrew Traill or Suzanne Evans to find out how you can support this ministry.

FLOWERS IN THE CATHEDRAL: Thank you for your ongoing generosity. If you would like to contribute towards flowers for the next few weeks, or for Easter and beyond, please contact Suzanne Evans. Suzanne's contact details are in the pewslip.

LIVESTREAM: The easiest way to connect to the livestream is through the cathedral YouTube channel:

<https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCXyas2uhJUNOnDetOpPdUOg>

MASKS: With the rise in COVID numbers, please strongly consider wearing a mask in places, including church, where you feel you are not able to adequately maintain physical distancing.

ATTENDING WORSHIP: Please continue to be mindful of COVIDSafe practices as we gather, and to be mindful of our own health and vulnerabilities as well as those in our community.

The sacrament is administered in both kinds. You are welcome to receive in one or both kinds. We ask that you do not intinct (dip) the host.

Finally, this week's poem is by Philip Larkin. Written for Sally Amis, the daughter of Kingsley Amis and Hilary Bardwell. Larkin writes a 'blessing' of ordinariness, so that this newborn child, not caught by celebrity or status, might know happiness. In researching this poem, I discovered that Sally Amis' life was sadly short and tragic. Perhaps Larkin was prophetic in his poem, in much the same way that Simeon and Anna foretell prophesy of joy and sadness.

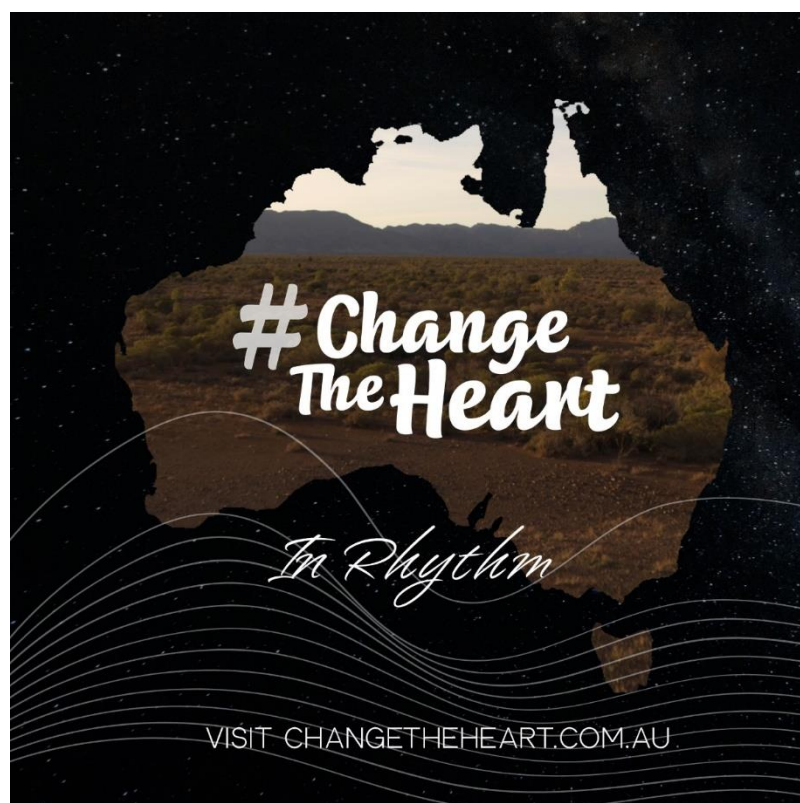

Born Yesterday
For Sally Amis

Tightly-folded bud,
I have wished you something
None of the others would:
Not the usual stuff
About being beautiful,
Or running off a spring
Of innocence and love—
They will all wish you that,
And should it prove possible,
Well, you're a lucky girl.

But if it shouldn't, then
May you be ordinary;
Have, like other women,
An average of talents:
Not ugly, not good-looking,
Nothing uncustomary
To pull you off your balance,
That, unworkable itself,
Stops all the rest from working.
In fact, may you be dull—
If that is what a skilled,
Vigilant, flexible,
Unemphasised, enthralled
Catching of happiness is called.

Philip Larkin 1922-1985

Music notes

Today is a big day at Christ Church Cathedral! This morning we celebrate the Feast of the Presentation of Christ in the Temple, recalling the moving account of Simeon, recognising the Saviour of the World - the promised Messiah - in the child Jesus. Our music is a joyful celebration of this story. The introit uses an ancient texts that summarises these events, while the anthem is a setting of Simeon's song, and our Mass setting is simply splendid - Haydn's 'Little Organ Mass' (though not so little!) This evening we celebrate the 175th Anniversary of the arrival in Newcastle of Bishop Tyrell, and receive an extraordinary gift of indigenous artworks. Our music begins with Markapmirr - an indigenous hymn that reminds us that long before Bishop Tyrell, this was Aboriginal land. Much of the other music traces the period of Bishop Tyrell's arrival and the time that has passed since then.

Samuel Sebastian Wesley was the most important English composer of church music at the time that Bishop Tyrell left England, and his beautiful anthem, 'Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on Thee', surely captures the spirit of the man who we remember tonight. The Magnificat and Nunc dimittis come from periods between then and now - Stanford's Nunc dimittis, composed early in the 20th century, and David Banney's Magnificat for lower voices, composed in 2023 - a reminder that Bishop Tyrell's work goes on in the faithful service of Anglicans in Newcastle today.

175th Anniversary of the Installation of the Right Reverend William Tyrrell D.D., First Bishop of Newcastle

At Evensong on Sunday 29th January (6.00pm), we will mark the 175th Anniversary of the installation of William Tyrrell as first Bishop of Newcastle. Tyrrell's almost thirty-three year episcopate set the shape of the Diocese of Newcastle. Indeed, at the time of his death on 24th March 1879, the boundaries of the Diocese had become very close to our current shape.

We will also bless a magnificent indigenous artwork, the work of the Reverend Canon Aunty Di Langham, and members of her family, Belinda and Bonny Roberts. The artwork, created largely with painted gum leaves, depicts Biriban, or in Aunty Di's language, Bunjil, the eagle who watches over us. We give thanks to Canon Aunty Di Langham, Belinda and Bonny Roberts, and family, for this compelling gift.

Pancake Day

Pancake Day or Shrove Tuesday is the traditional feast day before the start of Lent on Ash Wednesday. Lent – the 40 days up to Easter – was traditionally a time of fasting and on Shrove Tuesday, Anglo-Saxon Christians went to confession and were “shriven” (absolved from their sins). A bell would be rung to call people to confession. This came to be called the “Pancake Bell” and is still rung today.

Shrove Tuesday always falls 47 days before Easter Sunday and was the last opportunity to use up eggs and fats before embarking on the Lenten fast and pancakes are the perfect way of using up these ingredients
Shrove Tuesday falls on the 21st February this year.

A pancake is a thin flat cake, made of batter and fried in a frying pan. A traditional pancake is very thin and is served immediately. Golden Syrup or lemon juice and caster sugar are the usual toppings for pancakes.

The pancake has a very long history and featured in cookery books as far back as 1439. The tradition of tossing or “flipping” them is almost as old.

“And every man and maide doe take their turne,
And toss their Pancakes up for feare they burne”

(Pasquil’s Palin, 1619)
