Dear Parish Family

The time around ANZAC Day is always a very special – and busy – time in the Cathedral. We have already hosted a number of ANZAC services, including the ANZAC Commemoration Service this week, where we lit and blessed the flame that I will take to Nobby's for the Dawn Service. This year, Fr Gary will also be present at the Dawn Service at Gregson Park. The Field of Remembrance is also in the front grounds of the Cathedral, and members of the public are welcome to place wreaths or floral tributes, or place crosses.

Evensong on Sunday night will have an ANZAC remembrance theme. Please share this information widely with any who would like to attend.

FUNERAL OF JENNY PICKERING: Jenny's funeral is at the Cathedral on Friday 21st April at 12.30pm. With our livestreaming equipment being out of action, it will be streamed on the Pettigrew's funeral website:

<https://www.pettigrew.com.au/upcoming-services/pickering-jennifer>

At the AGM, I reiterated the commitment to being an inclusive and affirming community. I remain thankful that as a Parish Community we are committed to the ongoing work of being a safe, welcoming, inclusive, and affirming place for all. Thank you also for your ongoing prayers for our LGBTQIA+ community, at this time when their validity and identity continues to be challenged and questioned.

WHAT'S HAPPENING...

NAME BADGES: Do you have one of the funkiest accessories around? Would you like one? Please contact Sharon Dyett in the Parish Office to order yours.

SYNOD REPRESENTATIVES: Last week I reported that our Synod Representatives were Graham Vimpani and Ann Taylor. David Bowyer has subsequently been appointed by the Parish Council to fill the third position. There are still further appointments to be made to the Council and the Wardens.

CORONATION EVENSONG: Evensong on Sunday 7th May will reflect the King's Coronation. Please share this information widely.

LIVESTREAM: We are still waiting for the replacement pieces for our Livestream equipment. When it's fixed, the easiest way to connect to the livestream is through the cathedral YouTube channel:

<https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCXyas2uhJUNOnDetOpPdUOg>

ATTENDING WORSHIP: Please continue to be mindful of COVIDSafe practices as we gather, and to be mindful of our own health and vulnerabilities as well as those in our community. Please strongly consider wearing a mask in places, including church, where you feel you are not able to adequately maintain physical distancing. The sacrament is administered in both kinds. You are welcome to receive in one or both kinds. We ask that you do not intinct (dip) the host.

Finally, this week's poem, entitled Emmaus, draws on the experience of the disciples encountering the risen Christ, which is our Gospel reading for this weekend. The Emmaus Road resurrection appearance is my favourite resurrection appearance. (The usual favourite disclaimers do not apply in this situation!) In Spear's poem, she repeats the first two lines at the conclusion – and yet the lines are subtly changed to reflect a new reality. So too it is with the disciples on the road to Emmaus – though their change is perhaps not so subtle. When do our hearts burn within us?

Emmaus

I run in oddly warm December air
and chase the orange, evanescent sun.
Inhale, exhale (a runner's form of prayer),
I run in oddly warm December air.
A stranger joins me on the asphalt trail.
We speak in measured rhythm, then—he's gone.
I run in oddly warm December air,
My heart burns like the evanescent sun.

About the music

After our 'organ fast' during Lent, one of the musical joys of Easter is hearing the organ again, and today's music includes a number of works that put the organ on full display, and as always, be listening for the inspiring improvisation of our Organist-in-Residence, David Drury. In particular, be listening for David's playing immediately after the Gospel reading, and again during the censing of the altar – how will his playing reflect the text of the gospel, and how will he help us to enter into the mood of the Eucharist during the censing of the altar?

Our Evensong is a tribute to the ANZACs, and features the music of Michael Leighton Jones. It is hard to think of a more appropriate composer – ‘MLJ’ was born in New Zealand, studied in Cambridge where he was a member of the Choir of Kings College Cambridge, and then found his way to Australia, where he has had an illustrious career as a singer, composer, conductor and teacher (one of his students was your own Director of Music!). His setting of the Preces and Responses is a favourite in English cathedrals. His grandfather and his cousin both fought at Gallipoli, and his setting of Ataturk’s words in his motet ‘Gallipoli’ (dedicated to those two men) is truly inspiring.

Your sons are now lying in our bosom and are in peace. After having lost their lives on this land they have become our sons as well. (Ataturk)

Electronic Giving

If you are one of the very generous people who donate electronically to the Cathedral, sometimes this needs to be “reset” with your financial institute. Several people have dropped off not knowing there was an issue with their bank.

Loud Field

On Thursday this week, as part of the Loud Sky exhibition at the Lock Up, fields of ribbon flowers were installed at Sacred Heart Cathedral, and Christ Church Cathedral, as a reminder of all who are impacted by sexual abuse, and also as a sign of healing and hope.

Dr Rod Pattenden, one of the curators of the exhibition, is quoted in the Newcastle Herald, saying:

The exhibition is also a celebration of survival, Pattenden says.

"Despite the horror of abuse, these works visualise courage, containing elements of profound and great beauty," he wrote in his essay for the exhibition.

The exhibition's title comes in part from the Loud Fence movement, which began in Ballarat in 2016 and has spread around the world. Ribbons are tied to church fences as statements of protest and they act as visual portals for memory, loss and the celebration of life.

The flowers are the work of volunteers from across the community and the Anglican and Roman Catholic Churches, and will be on display at both Cathedrals until the end of April.
