Dear Parish Family

This week we hosted our annual visit from the Year Seven students from the Diocesan Schools for a day at the Cathedral. For most of these students from Scone Grammar, Manning Valley Anglican College, Bishop Tyrrell Anglican College, and Lakes Anglican Grammar, it was their first visit to the Cathedral. I love welcoming people to the Cathedral, and it was wonderful to welcome these students, and hear and see their excitement as they discovered the Cathedral for themselves. We who worship here week by week can forget how awe inspiring both the Cathedral and St Peter's are as buildings, saturated in prayer. A good exercise might be to look at the familiar through the eyes of a visitor!

The Synod of the Diocese of Newcastle meets on Saturday. Please pray for the work of our Synod. As I wrote last week, the pewslip contains lots of notices about upcoming events for NAIDOC week. As a Parish Community we are committed to the ongoing work of being a safe, welcoming, inclusive, and affirming place for all. We are committed to the journey of Makarrata – reconciliation with First Nations peoples. Thank you also for your ongoing prayers for our LGBTQIA+ community, at this time when their validity and identity continues to be challenged and questioned.

WHAT'S HAPPENING...

NEWS: This is our parish pewslip. If you have news, or items for the pewslip, please send them to Sharon in the parish office. We love contributions!

A MASS ON UKRAINIAN FOLKSONGS: Last year, David Banney composed this Mass setting in response to the invasion, and as a way of standing in solidarity with the people of Ukraine. On the first anniversary of its premiere, the Mass will be offered again on Sunday 25th June at 10.00am. Please invite others to come and pray with the people of Ukraine.

CONCERTS: There are some exciting concerts coming up in the next weeks. Please share this information widely. (If you're on Facebook, you can share the post from the Cathedral page to your Facebook feed.) Supporting these concerts supports and strengthens music in Newcastle and beyond.

LIVESTREAM: The easiest way to connect to the livestream is through the cathedral YouTube channel: <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCXyas2uhJUNOnDetOpPdUOg>

ATTENDING WORSHIP: I am very aware of rising COVID-19 infection rates as we come into winter. Please continue to be mindful of COVIDSafe practices as we gather, and to be mindful of our own health and vulnerabilities as well as those in our community. Please strongly consider wearing a mask in places, including church, where you feel you are not able to adequately maintain physical distancing.

The sacrament is administered in both kinds. You are welcome to receive in one or both kinds. We ask that you do not intinct (dip) the host.

Finally, this week's poem, is by Mohja Kahf, Syrian-American poet, novelist, and professor. Our first reading this week tells part of the story of Hagar. The story of the treatment of Hagar does not cover either Abraham or Sarah with glory. (Indeed, as those who were at Evensong last Sunday night will attest, some of Abraham's actions are questionable at the very least.) Mahja Kahf has written a series of poems on Hagar. This poem imagines Hagar writing to Sarah, naming the cruelty, and the loss of joy, for both.

Hagar Writes a Cathartic as an Exercise Suggested by her Therapist

Dear Sarah, life made us enemies
But it doesn't have to be that way.
What if we both ditched the old man?
He could have visitation rights with the boys
alternate weekends and holidays.
Yeah, especially the Feast of the Sacrifice—
everybody has forgotten anyway
that it began with me abandoned in the desert
watching my baby dehydrate for days—
I dared God to let us die.
Anyway, you and I,
we'd set up house,
raise the kids,
start a catering business, maybe.
You have brains.
So do I.
We could travel.
There are places to see
besides Ur and this nowhere'sville desert
with its tribes of hooligans
No. Your lips always thin when you disapprove, like the mother I can hardly remember
from before I wound up in your house.
I was barely more than a girl. You are the one
Who brought me there from Egypt.
You used to laugh back then. In those days,
You could bear to look at me.
Oh, Sarah, you need years of therapy
Can't you admit that what he did to me was cruel?
Admit it – for just one second
It won't make you hate him forever
just long enough to know the world won't fall apart.
Long enough to pity him, yourself, me
Laugh, Sarah, laugh
Imagine
God, the Possibility.
Sincerely Love,
Hagar

About the music....

As the war in Ukraine stretches well into its second year, we acknowledge this tragedy with a Mass on Ukrainian Folksongs. All of the melodies in this Mass come from Ukrainian folksongs, moulded to fit the text of the Mass, with harmonies added and accompanied by strings and piano. The chant for the Psalm is based on one of the most popular of all Ukrainian melodies. The Introit is based on a text from the Beaititudes - Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called children of God (Beati pacifici quoniam filii Dei vocabuntur). For our anthem we complete a month of musical settings of the text Tantum ergo, a poem that takes us to the heart of the Eucharist:

Down in adoration falling,
Lo! the sacred Host we hail;
Lo! o'er ancient forms departing,
newer rites of grace prevail;
faith for all defects supplying,
where the feeble senses fail.
To the everlasting Father,
and the Son who reigns on high,
with the Holy Ghost proceeding
forth from Each eternally,
be salvation, honor, blessing,
might and endless majesty. Amen.

More banners – Arch-Angel Raphael

The Chief of the Guardian Angels, guardian of all humanity and in particular, all wayfarers. He is also called the 'Healer of God'. The symbols of his care, a wallet and a staff, are shown on the reverse.

(From the cathedral brochure)

Raphael is one of the seven Archangels who stand before the throne of the Lord, and one of the only three mentioned by name in the Bible. He appears, by name, only in the Book of Tobit. Raphael's name means "God heals." This identity came about because of the biblical story that claims he "healed" the earth when it was defiled by the sins of the fallen angels in the apocryphal book of Enoch. Although only the archangels Gabriel and Michael are mentioned by name in the New Testament, the Gospel of John speaks of the pool at Bethesda, where many ill people rested, awaiting the moving of the water. "An angel of the Lord descended at certain times into the pond; and the water was moved. And he that went down first into the pond after the motion of the water was made whole of whatsoever infirmity he lay under" John 5:1-4. Because of the healing powers often linked to Raphael, the angel spoken of is generally associated with St. Raphael, the Archangel. (Catholic Online)

Note: Iconography. Raphael is said to guard pilgrims on their journeys and is often depicted holding a staff. He is also often depicted holding or standing on a fish, which alludes to his healing of Tobit with the fish's gall. Early mosaics often show him and the other archangels in the clothing of a Byzantine courtier.

Email from Suzanne Evans to the Community Lunch Team

A Very Good Afternoon to you All,

Thank you to those who generously supported our Community Lunch on Sunday in so many and varied ways. As you read through this email, I am sure you will forgive me if I make special mention of the contribution of the Staff and Students of Tyrrell House. An enormous “thank you” to you, on the way you coped with the last two lunches. You were absolutely superb.

When Thomas opened the doors on Sunday our guests began to stream in and they just kept coming. The students very efficiently took out more tables and had then set in a very short space of time. Then the next group of guests arrived and so the process continued until we reached 80 guests in total. Not only did we have tables in the centre of the hall, but they were placed on the sides of the hall also. There was a wonderful atmosphere including some very small guests who were playing with their toys on the carpet. As I have mentioned to Andrew on many occasions, those of us on the team who are there during the meal, are so very privileged as we see how the fruits of your generosity bring so much pleasure to our guests. You can imagine just how hard the students had to work and they also had to be extremely careful with the plating of the food to make sure we had enough for everyone, and yet at the conclusion of the day they were in the kitchen laughing and joking as they scrubbed the dishes. They are such a credit to their parents and NGS. We wish them a very happy and well-earned holiday.

Due to the increase in our numbers, the other part of the team, Orange Sky, have generously increased their hours with us in order to attend to the additional laundry. An invaluable service to the community as this provides dignity for our guests in the form of clean clothing and bedding.

We also had parcels of blankets, beanies, scarves and mittens for our guests as well as beautifully made warm jackets for their 4 legged companions donated by our friends at Belmont. Thank you to those who are helping with our off-cuts of fabric and wool collection along with the sock collection. All gratefully received.

Our next treat for our guests is fast approaching.....”Christmas in July”. So far we have planned to have a basted and decorated ham added to our menu, as we have enough in our funds, due to the success of Shrove Tuesday, to cover a ham for both this occasion and the true Christmas Lunch at the conclusion of the year. We are extremely grateful to “The Hunter Bell Ringers” who have so generously offered their time and talents to entertain our guests on JULY 16th. If anyone has any ideas as to how we can make this a very special occasion for our guests, please speak with either Thomas, Andrew or myself.

Our next Community Lunch will be held on JULY 2nd and the roster can be read at the conclusion of this email.

Thank you as always, to those of you who generously support the Cathedral Outreach Programme.

Suzanne Evans

Any frozen items can be left in the freezer in the Meeting Room in the Cathedral at anytime the Cathedral is open.

Also items can be delivered to the kitchen area of the Horbury Hunt Hall on the designated Sunday from 7.30am

If there are any enquiries with this , please let either Suzanne or myself know. If you know of anyone who may wish to join this most worthy cause please feel free to pass on this email.

Thank you all for your on-going support .

Kind regards

Andrew Traill OAM

Walking from Nazareth to Galilee, then on to Jerusalem and beyond... A Pilgrimage led by Rev'd Michael Armstrong

There is something special and sacred about the Holy Land – stepping in the places where Jesus trod, touching the places he touched.

In 2024 I am planning to take a pilgrimage with a difference – a walk from Nazareth to Galilee, then on to Jerusalem. It is a Pilgrimage with a difference including a trek, before a tour by bus and foot around Jerusalem.

We will visit sacred sites that are part of the life, death and resurrection of Jesus. We will also visit sites and places linked with other parts of the scriptures. Importantly we will also be visiting the amazing work of the Anglican Diocese of Jerusalem, supported through the Sustainable Communities Program of the Anglican Board of Mission Anglicans in Development (ABM AID).

This tour is led by myself through Olive Tree Travel and Keshet Tours. It is with a small group – deliberately as that is part of the experience that is offered.

Pilgrims who attend will be expected to raise funds for ABM AID's Sustainable Communities Program, which includes projects in the Holy Land, prior to departure, and resources will be provided to assist with this.

Pilgrims will also need to be able to walk over several days up to 20km's on trails of various terrain with a day pack (our large bags are transported to our hotel each day), and so need a reasonable level of fitness.

If you are interested, I'd love to hear from you and would be most happy to catch up to talk further and answer any questions you may have.

Shalom! Peace!
