Dear Parish Family

Last Sunday, Canon Auntie Di Langham blessed the Aboriginal Flag, and her family raised it in the Cathedral grounds. Thanks to Auntie Di for this great photo. We then gathered at Sacred Heart Cathedral for the start of NAIDOC Week liturgy.

This Sunday, in place of the sermon, we will be showing a very moving interview with Auntie Di and her daughter Bonny. (Bonny is one of the artists who created "Protector of the Valley" -the eagle made with painted gum leaves.)

As a Parish Community we are committed to the ongoing work of being a safe, welcoming, inclusive, and affirming place for all. We are committed to the journey of Makarrata - reconciliation with First Nations peoples. Thank you also for your ongoing prayers for our LGBTQIA+ community, at this time when their validity and identity continues to be challenged and questioned.

WHAT'S HAPPENING ...

NEWS: This is our parish pewslip. If you have news, or items for the pewslip, please send them to Sharon in the parish office. We love contributions!

LIVESTREAM: The easiest way to connect to the livestream is through the cathedral YouTube channel:

<https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCXyas2uhJUNOnDetOpPdUOg>

CHOIR HOLIDAY: Our Choirs are on holiday this week, enjoying a well-earned rest.

SEA SUNDAY: Sunday 16th July is Sea Sunday, and that evening's Evensong will be our annual service of prayer and thanksgiving for the work of Seafarers, and also the blessing of the Port. There will be supper following the service.

ATTENDING WORSHIP: Please continue to be mindful of COVIDSafe practices as we gather, and to be mindful of our own health and vulnerabilities as well as those in our community. Please strongly consider wearing a mask in places, including church, where you feel you are not able to adequately maintain physical distancing.

The sacrament is administered in both kinds. You are welcome to receive in one or both kinds. We ask that you do not intinct (dip) the host.

Finally, this week's poem, is by Jennifer Rahim, and poet from Trinidad. Our Old Testament reading this week speaks of leaving home, and Rahim's poem (much like Warumpi Band's My Island Home <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=yZEodxUX2ME> and Christine Anu's version of it <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=OSFGK9HIEto>) speaks of a concept of home that we carry with us, no matter where we find ourselves.

Wherever I Go ...

there will be an island,
and an ocean will be what rings me.

We are to the very end
a naming not our own,
though we leave to find
what is left behind
and that holds us,
more than we know,
like a small beach
has the ear of the great sea
and a trillion ebbs
are never without returns.

This flow is the staying,
though we depart.

An oyster takes a single grain and stores it in her heart's muscle like a lover's memento;
she never lets us go ...

Jennifer Rahim 1963-2023

With my thanks and prayers,
Dean Katherine

Another Arch Angel – Uriel

A heavenly creature made of light and regent of the Sun

His name means ‘the light of God’. Not only light but enlightenment, as he carries a book (or scroll) indicating his role as interpreter of judgments and prophecies. Uriel, in the Jewish and Christian Apocrypha, a leading angel, sometimes ranked as an archangel with Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael. Because his name in Hebrew means “fire of God” or “light of God,” he has been variously identified in Jewish traditions as an angel of thunder and earthquake, as the wielder of the fiery sword in driving Adam and Eve from the Garden of Eden, as the destroyer of the hosts of Sennacherib, as the figure who enlightens Ezra with visions, and, generally, as an angel of terror, prophecy, or mystery. The English poet John Milton in Paradise Lost described Uriel as ‘Regent of the Sun’ and the ‘sharpest sighted spirit of all in Heaven.’ (Britannica) Uriel is often depicted carrying either a book or a scroll, both of which represent wisdom. Another symbol connected with Uriel is an open hand holding a flame or the sun, which represents God’s truth. The Agnus Dei is a visual representation of Jesus as the Lamb, since the Middle Ages usually carrying a halo and holding a standard or banner with a cross and symbolising the victory.
