As we celebrate the Transfiguration this Sunday, our music begins with an Introit for Transfiguration, using a wonderfully evocative and brilliant text from Gerard Manley Hopkins:

The world is charged with the grandeur of God.

Our music for Evensong this week focusses on the tragedy of the bombing of Hiroshima. We begin with an Introit based on the text 'Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God'. The Magnificat and Nunc dimittis are composed by Orlando Gibbons (1583-1625) and Thomas Tallis (1505-1585), respectively, who lived in England at a time of enormous upheaval, and though nuclear weapons were a long way off, it must have seemed to them that society as they knew it was in enormous peril. Our Preces and Responses (the prayers sung responsively between a cantor and the choir) are composed by Michael Leighton-Jones, an outstanding composer with a strong family connection to men who fought and died in the Great War. The anthem is the Sanctus from a Mass on Ukrainian Folksongs, reminding us that the search for peace never stops. And during the lighting of candles there will be an instrumental rendition of Karl Jenkins beautiful Sanctus from his Mass entitled 'The Armed Man'.

St Jerome

Known for his wisdom in defence of truth, his translation of the Bible into Latin, (the Vulgate), is the basis for the authorised version. He is almost invariably shown with a lion and there is a legend that Jerome fearlessly approached a hurt lion and removed a thorn from its foot. The lion became his constant companion, his loving care having evoked a similar response from the beast. The book indicates his wisdom and scholarship. (Banner Brochure)

Cross potent also known as a crutch cross, is a form of heraldic cross with crossbars at the four ends. In French, it is known as croix potencée, in German as a Kruckenkreuz, all translating to "crutch cross". In heraldic literature of the 19th century, the cross potent is also known as the "Jerusalem cross" due to its occurrence in the attributed coat of arms of the Kingdom of Jerusalem. The name Jerusalem cross is more commonly given to the more complex symbol consisting of a large Greek cross or cross potent surrounded by four smaller Greek crosses.

What is a fitted cross? A cross "fitted" is any cross whose lower limb has been replaced with a long point. The term derives from the French for "fixed (in the ground);" the cross is stuck into the ground by its point.

The Jerusalem cross, a cross potent with four Greek crosses.

If you are one of the very generous people who donate electronically to the Cathedral, sometimes this needs to be “reset” with your financial institute. Several people have dropped off not knowing there was an issue with their bank.
