Dear Parish Family

It's been a week of activity at the Deanery, as a new sewer line was installed, which involved much drilling and digging. Access to the office is back to normal, and thanks for your patience as this urgent repair was undertaken.

When you're in the Cathedral, you may also notice that the toilets are looking brighter and fresher. Thanks to Stephen who has been repainting, repairing, and water blasting.

Please hold me, and the clergy of the Diocese of Grafton, in your prayers this week. I have been invited to lead their clergy retreat, which will be in Lismore this week. I will be away from Sunday 8th October and returning for Sunday 15th October.

Our love and prayers and congratulations for Steven and Justina as they are married at the Cathedral on Saturday 7th October at 2.00pm May you continue to grow in love together.

The Referendum is just over a week away. As we approach this final date, the media noise has an increasingly strident edge, and there have been distressing and harming instances of racism. The Prime Minister met with faith leaders this week, and commented:

Australians from different faiths, cultures and traditions, and on every side of politics are saying Yes.

Today leaders from Christian, Muslim, Hindu, Jewish, Buddhist and Sikh communities came together to support a Yes vote in the referendum.

Voting Yes is about recognition, listening, and better results.

If you want to see how the Voice will unite Australia, look no further than this.

Image and text Facebook

As a Diocese, we have twice affirmed our support for The Voice. As a Parish Community we are committed to the ongoing work of being a safe, welcoming, inclusive, and affirming place for all. We are committed to the journey of Makarrata – reconciliation with First Nations peoples. Thank you also for your ongoing prayers for our LGBTQIA+ community, at this time when their validity and identity continues to be challenged and questioned.

WHAT'S HAPPENING...

NEWS: This is our parish pewslip. If you have news, or items for the pewslip, please send them to Sharon in the parish office. We love contributions!

LIVESTREAM: The Livestream is back! The easiest way to connect to the livestream is through the cathedral YouTube channel:

<https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCXyas2uhJUNOnDetOpPdUOg>

CONCERTS: On Sunday afternoon there is a beautiful Chamber Music Concert, perfect for a glorious Spring outing. Tickets at the door, or online: information is in the pewslip. There is also information about The Under Construction Choir 15th Anniversary Concert at Adamstown Uniting Church on Saturday.

ATTENDING WORSHIP: Please continue to be mindful of COVIDSafe practices as we gather, and to be mindful of our own health and vulnerabilities as well as those in our community. Please strongly consider wearing a mask in places, including church, where you feel you are not able to adequately maintain physical distancing.

The sacrament is administered in both kinds. You are welcome to receive in one or both kinds. We ask that you do not intinct (dip) the host.

Finally, this week's poem, is by Gerard Manley Hopkins. Our theme at Families@Five on Saturday Evening is "Starry, Starry Night", and as I have shared before, I have a particular love for the night sky, having once wanted to be an astronomer. Our psalm this weekend, Psalm 19, is a glorious hymn of praise to the Creator of the universe. Hopkins' poem takes us from gazing up into the skies to gazing through to the eternal realm.

The Starlight Night

Look at the stars! look, look up at the skies!

O look at all the fire-folk sitting in the air!

The bright boroughs, the circle-citadels there!

Down in dim woods the diamond delves! the elves'-eyes!

The grey lawns cold where gold, where quickgold lies!

Wind-beat whitebeam! airy abeles set on a flare!

Flake-doves sent floating forth at a farmyard scare!
Ah well! it is all a purchase, all is a prize.

Buy then! bid then! — What? — Prayer, patience, alms, vows.
Look, look: a May-mess, like on orchard boughs!

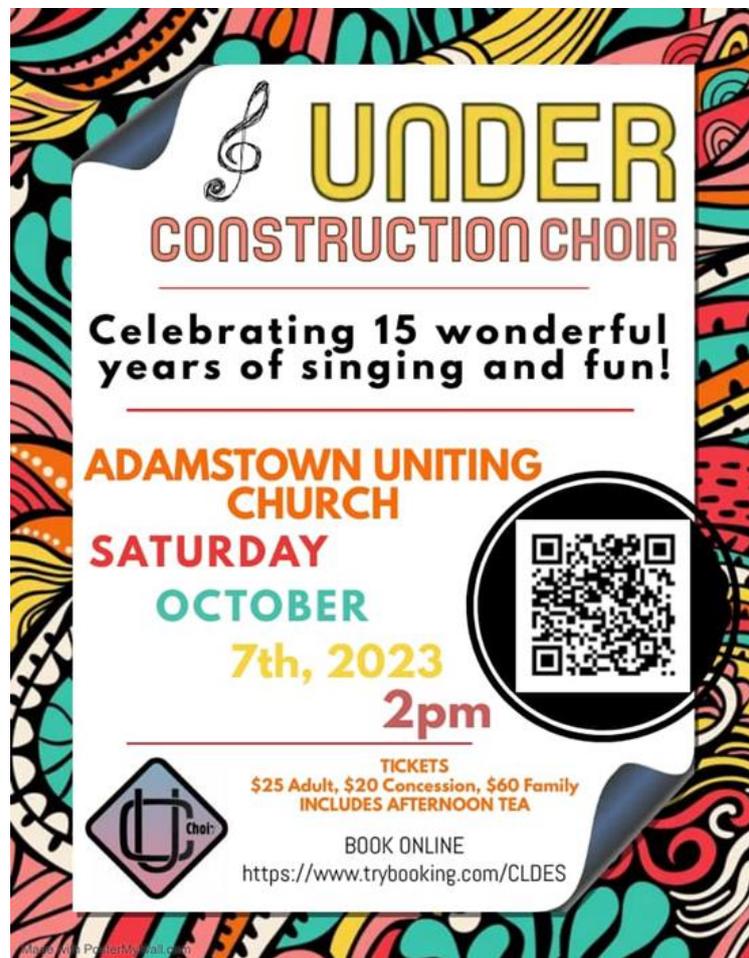

Look! March-bloom, like on mealed-with-yellow shallows!
These are indeed the barn; withindoors house
The shocks. This piece-bright paling shuts the spouse
Christ home, Christ and his mother and all his hallows.

Gerard Manley Hopkins 1844-1889

With my thanks and prayers,

Dean Katherine

Our music for Sunday morning includes a brilliant introit by an 18th century Italian composer, Giuseppe Pitoni. One of the most prolific composers of his time, Pitoni composed more than 3500 works, according to his first biographer. These included a complete year of music for St St Peter's Basilica, with a Mass, Psalm and Anthem for each Sunday of the year, and his list of works includes 350 Masses. Our anthem is by Bob Chilcott - a superb composer and arranger, and a past member of the Kings Singers.

Oct 16–20, 2023

Under the umbrella of Christ Church Cathedral, Newcastle, and supported by the Northern Peninsula Arts Centre, David Banney will be joined by Rosemary Ponnekanti and Bianca Ponnekanti in this very exciting tour, which will give a rare opportunity for collaboration with First Nations children and musicians in concerts, classes and workshops, and we hope that it will be the beginning of a long and rich musical relationship.

The tour has been made possible through the generous financial support of the Cathedral and numerous individuals. We still need a small amount of funding to get us over the line in paying for airfares and accomodation, and we would be very grateful if you could support us in this very exciting project.

A CALL TO ALL KNITTERS AND CRAFT PEOPLE

As mentioned in the notices on Sunday, we have been extremely fortunate that a group known as Warm Blankets for Everyone have kindly included the Cathedral Outreach Programme as one of their charities. This group create beautiful rugs etc., from off cuts of fabric and left over balls of wool for the needy. If you have off cuts of non-shiny fabric, non-stretch, old school uniforms, cotton, denim etc. old blankets, polar fleece and balls of wool you no longer require the Community Lunch team would greatly appreciate these items.

A box can be found near our sock box in the Narthex of the Cathedral or at St Peter's or we can collect from you and these items will be delivered to Belmont for this valuable service.

Electronic Giving

If you are one of the very generous people who donate electronically to the Cathedral, sometimes this needs to be “reset” with your financial institute. Several people have dropped off not knowing there was an issue with their bank.

Restoration Walk Pavers

There is still space available if you would like to place a “memorial” paver in the Restoration Walk.

Maybe for an anniversary, to celebrate a birth or to remember your beloved furry friend. Pavers are $330 and you can order through the office on 49292052.

Donations for Flowers

To donate flowers in memory of a loved one or as a thank-offering, please advise Suzanne Evans on 4955 9170 and place your donation in an envelope listing the date for display and include a message and place in the wall safe. Flowers are required for October 22, 29 and November 5, 12 and 26th.

Spring cleaning?

The nights are still cool so now is a great time to donate a pair of socks to the homeless!

Please donate your NEW SOCKS where you see this sign.
