Dear Parish Family

This week we have learnt the sad news of the death Of Anita Berghout, who worshipped faithfully at the Cathedral with her husband Bob, until ill health prevented her attendance. Anita's funeral is at the Willows Uniting Church at Warners Bay at 10.00am on Saturday 17th February. We have also learnt of the death of Russ Cooper, a faithful parishioner at East Maitland, and father of the Reverend Mark Cooper, Rector of Mayfield-Islington, and a good friend of the Cathedral.

Rest eternal grant to them, O lord, and let light perpetual shine upon them.

We had a beautiful and fabulous evening in the Cathedral for Shrove Tuesday. Huge thanks to Suzanne Evans and her team, who not only set up, but then spent the next day washing up! You can read a longer report from Suzanne in the pewslip.

Our Ash Wednesday services were deeply profound, and well attended – despite the weather on Wednesday evening.

In the pewslip, and with the email bundle, you'll find resources for Lent, including Catherine Banney's Lenten Study PRAY. Printed copies are available at the cathedral and St Peter's Hamilton.

I was talking with a visitor on Thursday, who remarked at the steady number of people who come through the Cathedral doors. This is a special gift that we offer as a Cathedral, and I am thankful to the volunteers – especially our assistant vergers and shop volunteers – who make a welcoming space. Being a place of prayer is part of our commitment as a Parish Community to the ongoing work of being a safe, welcoming, inclusive, and affirming place for all. We are committed to the journey of Makarrata – reconciliation with First Nations peoples. Thank you also for your ongoing prayers for our LGBTQIA+ community, at this time when their validity and identity continues to be challenged and questioned.

WHAT'S HAPPENING...

NEWS: This is our parish pewslip. If you have news, or items for the pewslip, please send them to Sharon in the parish office. We love contributions!

CATHEDRAL DAILY EUCHARISTS continue, and it has been lovely to be joined by visitors to the Cathedral over these days. Why not join us one morning too? Monday-Friday, 8.30am, except on Public Holidays.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH PROGRAMME: The Anglican Parish of Gresford-Paterson recently took up a collection in memory of Margie Plain, my sister who died in March last year. Margie was a much-loved member of the parish, who, in the words of the parishioners, "showed us that though we are small, we can make a big difference".

Margie encouraged the parish to support programmes such as our Parish Pantry, Community Lunch, and Mission to Seafarers. In the pewslip, you'll see some photos of their generous gift of love.

COVID AND ATTENDING WORSHIP: COVID is on the rise again! Please continue to be mindful of COVIDSafe practices as we gather, and to be mindful of our own health and vulnerabilities as well as those in our community. Please strongly consider wearing a mask in places, including church, where you feel you are not able to adequately maintain physical distancing.

LENTEN RESOURCES: Please check the pewslip for the many resources available this Lent, especially, the resources available through our Cathedral Shop.

LIVESTREAM: The easiest way to connect to the livestream (when it is working! 😊) is through the cathedral YouTube channel:

<https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCXyas2uhJUNOnDetOpPdUOg>

The sacrament is administered in both kinds. You are welcome to receive in one or both kinds. We ask that you do not intinct (dip) the host.

Finally, this week's poem is by Jan Richardson. I have been talking with a colleague about finding light in the midst of darkness, and the challenges of this with all that is happening in our lives and in the world. Jan Richardson's poem was a gift to me this Ash Wednesday. I pray it may likewise be gift for you.

THE WAY THAT ASHES KNOW A Blessing for Ash Wednesday

So let the ashes come as beginning
and not as end;
the first sign
but not the final.
Let them rest upon you
as invocation and invitation, and then let them take you
the way that ashes know to go.

May they mark you with the memory of fire and of the life
that came before the burning:
the life that rises and returns
and finds its way again.

See what shimmers
amid their darkness,
what endures
within their dust.

See how they draw us toward the mystery
that will consume
but not destroy,
that will blossom
from the blazing,
that will scorch us
with its joy.

Jan Richardson 1967-

With my thanks and prayers,
Dean Katherine

*Ps: Please share this email with others who would like to hear news of the parish.

The Anglican Parish of

member of their parish.

Music notes

One of the most common questions in Christian circles this week will be 'What are you giving up for Lent?' Each of us will have our own answers and reasons – in our music we observe the season in part by 'giving up' the rich, comforting sounds of the organ, at least in its role as accompanist for the choir (the organ will still play an important role in the hymns and other parts of the service). Instead, our music will feature unaccompanied music for the choir, from plainsong through the music of the 1500s, right up to brand new music composed here in Newcastle. This week's music includes the glorious music of the sixteenth-century English composer William Byrd, written at a time when the world seemed at least as unsettled as it does today. Torn between monarchs who supported Rome and those who favoured reform, even using Latin instead of English, or vice versa, could have been enough to be tried and executed for treason.

This music is more than simply beautiful – there is a toughness that no doubt reflects the troubled times in which it was composed. Byrd's career took place at a time when English music and liturgy was establishing itself in the forms that we know and love today, and two other greats of that tradition feature in our Evensong – Thomas Morley, who was a contemporary of Byrd, and Henry Purcell, who lived a century later, and was the last great English composer before the 'dark ages' of English music, revived in the 1800s by composers such as Wesley, Parry and Elgar.

Have you heard of the Cathedral Prayer Chain?

This chain consists of a group of Cathedral parishioners, who pray for those who want us to pray for them or someone near to them. All names put forward remain completely confidential within the group. This is different from the Cathedral prayer list. We meet monthly on the first Friday following the Eucharist. If you feel you would like to join this group please contact Virginia Wheeler on 4926 1979.

Shrove Tuesday.....

An enormous thank you to all who went the extra mile to ensure our Shrove Tuesday Party was a delightful occasion for our guests. We especially thank Dean Katherine for allowing us the use of the Cathedral and for the promotion, Matthew Watson, David Banney and Rosie Murree-Allen, who despite many problems, was with us working away in true Rosie style. We also extend our gratitude to the Newcastle Grammar School, David Frazer, Ross Peverill and the wonderful men of the Property Team, Nicolette Thomas, who spent one Saturday wrapping the breakable items ready for the move over to the Cathedral, Elizabeth Epstein, who kindly washed dishes yesterday, our donors of batter, the chefs, those who served the Pancakes and of course our guests, who arrived ready to “party”. It has been estimated that there were around 90 in attendance.

All proceeds from the evening will go towards our Outreach Programme so we may continue to care for those in need. When we have a figure, I shall pass the news onto you all.

Once again “thank you” team for a job well done

Suzanne and Andrew

Dear Friends

Bula Vinaka from Fiji!

I have returned this week to continue in my role as Senior Lecturer in Theology and Ethics at the Pacific Theological College in Suva. What a delight it is to be with friends and colleagues again as we await the arrival of students, continuing and new, from all around Oceania. I'm excited to be teaching Pasifika Theology and Ethics first up.

Today I joined again the community of the Holy Trinity Cathedral of Suva and received a warm welcome from old friends (and the choir). I greeted them on behalf of Bishop Peter, Dean Katherine, and the Christ Church community, and sent special greetings from the former Dean, Fr Melbourne Nelson. There were many tears of joy to hear these greetings, so I wanted to let you know that the connection between our two cathedrals is still strong and hearty.

Just before I left Australia I was involved in the XIV International Bonhoeffer Congress, held for the first time on our shores. It was a really wonderful event, steering our scholarly community in a decolonizing, decentering direction. I'll share more about that soon.

For now, on this very hot and humid afternoon under the palm trees and by the lagoon, I send my warm wishes and blessings from Fiji.

Di Rayson, Lay Canon

As we have had some very hot days.
please think about bringing water with you to church as it can get quite warm inside.

Tuesdays: 5pm Christ Church Cathedral

The Study group will meet on Tuesdays at 5.00pm in the Christopher Chapel, commencing Tuesday 20th February. Books are available for $12. An e-book option is also be available – please contact Dean Katherine for details.

First Nations leaders and clergy from the Anglican Church, generously offer theological insights and personal reflections that help us to hear the VOICE of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people of faith.

Based on the Seven Days of Creation and with stunningly beautiful paintings by the Rev'd Aunty Robyn Davis, 'God's Own Country' is an essential, life-giving and challenging study.

In our struggle to become an authentically Australian church, what better resource could we turn to than the voices of leaders who draw on vibrant Christian faith and a 60,000 year old understanding of God's relationship with the land and people of the country we call Australia.

Dig your fingers in to the soil of 'God's Own Country', and discover more about the God we love and serve.
