We have taken measures to ensure that the Cathedral is a safe environment for all. All who work with children or youth have completed Safe Ministry Training and all clergy, staff and volunteers are subject to strict employment measures such as working with children checks. The Cathedral is committed to being a place where survivors of abuse experience care and support.

Our preacher this morning is Ms Jacqueline Drewe. Jacqui is in her final year of Formation for ordination. This is her first occasion preaching at the Cathedral.

Thank you to all those who celebrated with us last night for the launch of the Keith Murree-Allen endowment fund. Thank you to those who have responded generously in acknowledgement of Keith's commitment to and ministry in this place, and to help ensure a lively future for the music programme. May we all model Keith's generosity of spirit in our various ministries in this Cathedral Church.

Readers - sign-up sheets for May, June & July are available at the back of the Cathedral. Any questions please email Ann Taylor annthorington@gmail.com.

Newcastle Cathedral's Mainly Music group is a fun group for children aged 0 to 5 years and their parents or carers incorporating action songs and games that help to develop gross and fine motor skills, language and creativity. The cost is $5 per family - Your first session is free!

Today, ABM supports projects throughout the Episcopal Church of Jerusalem and the Middle East such as the Diocese of Jerusalem's Empowering Youths with Disabilities program at the Princess Basma Centre. The centre supports young people's social inclusion and human rights while teaching vocational skills. Another example is ABM's support of the Diocese of Egypt's evangelism program as well as of their EpiscoCare agency. This year EpiscoCare wants us to help their healthcare program which seeks to improve the medical outcomes for children and vulnerable people in marginalized Egyptian communities. We are also supporting the Diocese of Cyprus and the Gulf's Student Chaplaincy at Eastern Mediterranean University (EMU) in Famagusta, Northern Cyprus. Currently it is being led by Justin Arnott, a South African. Christian students from countries in Africa, Asia and the Middle East find spiritual support through the chaplaincy.

He writes that through seminary life God has brought him to a place where he can experience a death to his own self and resurrection to the reality into which God has called him. After completing his training, Austin wants to continue serving God faithfully as a priest. He believes his life is meant to help others to develop a strong relationship with Jesus Christ. He prays that he might be given the future opportunity to read for a higher degree in theology. Please support St John's Seminary so that passionate, dedicated people like Austin may pursue the call to the ordained ministry, enabling the spread of the Gospel and the strengthening of the Church across Zambia and beyond.
