We have taken measures to ensure that the Cathedral is a safe environment for all. All who work with children or youth have completed Safe Ministry Training and all clergy, staff and volunteers are subject to strict employment measures such as working with children checks. The Cathedral is committed to being a place where survivors of abuse experience care and support.

Community Lunch 12.30pm today in the Horbury Hunt Hall.

We welcome as our preacher at 6pm Evensong tonight, the Reverend Rosalind Brown. Rosalind is Residentiary Canon and Canon Librarian of Durham Cathedral, having previously trained people for ordination in Salisbury. She studied at London University and Yale Divinity School, worked for many years as a town planner before spending some years in the United States, where she was in parish ministry and a member of a Benedictine religious community. She is the author of a number of hymns and books including: Being a Deacon Today (2005), Being a Priest Today (2002, 2006) written jointly with Christopher Cocksworth, and Can Words Express Our Wonder? Preaching in the church today (2009), all published by Canterbury Press, and Durham Sings! (2009) and Ramsey Remembered: the Durham Years (2010), published by Durham Cathedral.

ABM Missions – Easter Gift(s)

 ANGLICAN BOARD OF MISSION Working for Love, Hope & Justice	Please support the Good Friday Gift
 A young man makes a traditional coffee stool using seagrass as part of the vocational training program offered to young people with disabilities at the Princess Basma Centre in Jerusalem, © Diocese of Jerusalem 2015.	ABM's support of the Church in Bible lands began a century ago. Today, ABM supports projects throughout the Episcopal Church of Jerusalem and the Middle East such as the Diocese of Jerusalem's Empowering Youths with Disabilities program at the Princess Basma Centre. The centre supports young people's social inclusion and human rights while teaching vocational skills. Another example is ABM's support of the Diocese of Egypt's evangelism program as well as of their EpiscoCare agency. This year EpiscoCare wants us to help their healthcare program which seeks to improve the medical outcomes for children and vulnerable people in marginalized Egyptian communities. We are also supporting the Diocese of Cyprus and the Gulf's Student Chaplaincy at Eastern Mediterranean University (EMU) in Famagusta, Northern Cyprus. Currently it is being led by Justin Arnott, a South African Christian student from countries in Africa, Asia and the Middle East find spiritual support through the chaplaincy.
"Educating our Partners for a brighter future" GOOD FRIDAY GIFT 2018

 ANGLICAN BOARD OF MISSION Working for Love, Hope & Justice	Please support St John's Seminary in Zambia
 Austin Ng'andwe hopes to be a parish priest one day © St John's Seminary, 2016.	Austin Ng'andwe was born in Ndola, Zambia in 1990, one of nine children, with strong Anglican parents. He is studying at St John's Seminary, Kitwe, for a Bachelor of Theology degree. He writes that through seminary life God has brought him to a place where he can experience a death to his own self and resurrection to the reality into which God has called him. After completing his training, Austin wants to continue serving God faithfully as a priest. He believes his life is meant to help others to develop a strong relationship with Jesus Christ. He prays that he might be given the future opportunity to read for a higher degree in theology. Please support St John's Seminary so that passionate, dedicated people like Austin may pursue the call to the ordained ministry, enabling the spread of the Gospel and the strengthening of the Church across Zambia and beyond.
"Educating our Partners for a brighter future" EASTER GIFT 2018

Please place your donation in the collection plate or in the wall safe at the back of the Cathedral. Envelopes can be found at the back of the church.
