"Educating our Partners for a brighter future" EASTER GIFT 2018	Please support St John's Seminary in Zambia Austin Ng'andwe was born in Ndola, Zambia in 1990, one of nine children, with strong Anglican parents. He is studying at St John's Seminary, Kitwe, for a Bachelor of Theology degree. He writes that through seminary life God has brought him to a place where he can experience a death to his own self and resurrection to the reality into which God has called him. After completing his training, Austin wants to continue serving God faithfully as a priest. He believes his life is meant to help others to develop a strong relationship with Jesus Christ. He prays that he might be given the future opportunity to read for a higher degree in theology. Please support St John's Seminary so that passionate, dedicated people like Austin may pursue the call to the ordained ministry, enabling the spread of the Gospel and the strengthening of the Church across Zambia and beyond.

"Educating our Partners for a brighter future" GOOD FRIDAY GIFT 2018	Please support the Good Friday Gift ABM's support of the Church in Bible lands began a century ago. Today, ABM supports projects throughout the Episcopal Church of Jerusalem and the Middle East such as the Diocese of Jerusalem's Empowering Youths with Disabilities program at the Princess Basma Centre. The centre supports young people's social inclusion and human rights while teaching vocational skills. Another example is ABM's support of the Diocese of Egypt's evangelism program as well as of their EpiscoCare agency. This year EpiscoCare wants us to help their healthcare program which seeks to improve the medical outcomes for children and vulnerable people in marginalized Egyptian communities. We are also supporting the Diocese of Cyprus and the Gulf's Student Chaplaincy at Eastern Mediterranean University (EMU) in Famagusta, Northern Cyprus. Currently it is being led by Justin Arnott, a South African. Christian students from countries in Africa, Asia and the Middle East find spiritual support through the chaplaincy.
