Dear Parish Family

Two of my favourite¹ feasts are in the next week: All Saints and All Souls. These great feasts give us the opportunity to give thanks for all the holy people whose lives have touched ours, and to remember that we too are part of, as the writer of the letter to the Hebrews states: “a great cloud of witnesses” (Hebrews 12.1). On Saturday 5th November at 5.00pm, we will celebrate baptisms and confirmations, which will be a wonderful way to conclude the week. Please continue to pray for those preparing for baptism and confirmation.

There is still time to add names to the All Souls Day list for remembrance. Please email to the Parish Office by Tuesday close of business, or print on the lists at St Peter’s and the Cathedral.

As we remember people who are part of our lives, we continue to hold Hilary and Michael Hayes, and their son-in-law Mark, in our prayers, following the death of Hilary and Michael’s daughter Carol. Rest eternal grant to her, O Lord, and let light perpetual shine upon her.

I am also looking forward to attending Beyond the Wall: Stories of LGBTIQ+ Spirituality on Saturday morning. Please continue to pray for and with our LGBTQIA+ community.

A little bit of what else is happening and in the pewslip:

ALL SAINTS: On Sunday 30th October we are blessed to have ARIA Award winning musicians Chris Duncan and Catherine Strutt lead us in a Celtic Mass for the great feast of All Saints. This will be a wonderfully joyous occasion of worship, with a Celtic Mass setting, composed by David Banney.

ALL SOULS: Our annual All Souls Day Remembrance will be on Wednesday 2nd November at 6.00pm. A list is available at St Peter’s and the cathedral to add names for remembrance, or please email to the office by Tuesday close of business.

MENTAL HEALTH CANDLELIGHT VIGIL: On Sunday 30th October at 3.00pm we will host the Mental Health Candlelight Vigil, with music from the Under Construction Choir.

WEEKDAY SERVICES: The daily Eucharist is a beautiful way to start the day. The Eucharist is celebrated Monday-Friday morning at the Cathedral at 8.30am, and

Tuesdays and Thursdays at 11.00am at St Peter's Hamilton. I am thankful to all the clergy who share this ministry with me.

PARISH PANTRY: Thank you for your generous support. Please consider an extra item for the parish pantry or the Samaritans basket.

LIVESTREAM: The easiest way to connect to the livestream is through the cathedral YouTube channel:

<https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCXyas2uhJUNOnDetOpPdUOg>

MASKS: Please strongly consider wearing a mask in places, including church, where you feel you are not able to adequately maintain physical distancing.

ATTENDING WORSHIP: Please continue to be mindful of COVIDSafe practices as we gather, and to be mindful of our own health and vulnerabilities as well as those in our community. The sacrament is administered in both kinds. You are welcome to receive in one or both kinds. We ask that you do not intinct (dip) the host.

Finally, this week's poem is by John Shaw Neilson. Born in Penola, in South Australia, Neilson faced many challenges throughout his life, including hardship, ill health, and failing eyesight. This poem speaks of the gift of listening, remembering the treasure that is entrusted to us as we hear the stories. Through the telling of the stories, the people and their actions live once more (as Christians our understanding of anamnesis is important to note here). I think of my own grandmothers, two of my holy people, of their stories and their lives. L. P. Hartley famously wrote: "The past is a foreign country; they do things differently there". We would do well at times to recover the gift of listening to the stories of the past.

Old Granny Sullivan

A pleasant shady place it is, a pleasant place and cool —
The township folk go up and down, the children pass to school:
Along the river lies my world, a dear sweet world to me;
I sit and learn — I cannot go: there is so much to see.

But Granny she has seen the world, and often by her side
I sit and listen while she speaks of youthful days of pride.
Old Granny's hands are clasped; she wears her favourite faded shawl —
I ask her this, I ask her that: she says, "I mind them all".

The boys and girls that Granny knew, far o'er the seas are they;
But there's no love like the old love, and the old world far away.
Her talk is all of wakes and fairs — or how, when night would fall,
"Twas many a quare thing crept and came!" And Granny "minds them all".

A strange new land was this to her, and perilous, rude and wild —
Where loneliness and tears and care came to each mother's child:

The wilderness closed all around, grim as a prison wall;
But white folk then were stout of heart — ah! Granny “minds it all”.

The day she first met Sullivan — she tells it all to me —
How she was hardly twenty-one, and he was twenty-three.
The courting days! the kissing days! — but bitter things befall
The bravest hearts that plan and dream. Old Granny “minds it all”.

Her wedding dress I know by heart: yes! every flounce and frill;
And the little home they lived in first, with the garden on the hill.
'Twas there her baby boy was born, and neighbours came to call;
But none had seen a boy like Jim — and Granny “minds it all”.

They had their fight in those old days; but Sullivan was strong,
A smart quick man at anything; 'twas hard to put him wrong ...
One day they brought him from the mine ... (The big salt tears will fall) ..
“'Twas long ago, God rest his soul!” Poor Granny “minds it all”.

The first dark days of widowhood, the weary days and slow,
The grim, disheartening, uphill fight, then Granny lived to know.
“The childer,” ah! they grew and grew — sound, rosy-cheeked, and tall:
“The childer” still they are to her. Old Granny “minds them all”.

How well she loved her little brood! Oh, Granny’s heart was brave!
She gave to them her love and faith — all that the good God gave.
They change not with the changing years: as babies just the same
She feels for them — though some, alas, have brought her grief and shame.

The big world called them here and there, and many a mile away:
They cannot come — she cannot go — the darkness haunts the day;
And I, no flesh and blood of hers, sit here while shadows fall —
I sit and listen — Granny talks; for Granny “minds it all”.

'Tis time to pause, for pause we must — we only have our day —
Yes: by and by our dance will die, our fiddlers cease to play:
And we shall seek some quiet place where great grey shadows fall,
And sit and wait as Granny waits — we’ll sit and “mind them all”.

John Shaw Neilson 1872-1942

Dean Katherine

We have a wonderful group of children meeting on Saturdays at 5pm to prepare for baptism and confirmation. They have learnt about the many types of families to which we can belong. Some are already part of our St Nicholas Choir family, the Cathedral baptism family, and the Families@Five community. We've talked about Jesus' baptism, and who God might be and explored this beautiful building to find Jesus, God, and symbols of the Holy Spirit. There is much more to talk about over the next two sessions! You can meet them in the pictures below. Please pray for these children by name as they journey to confirmation and the vows they will make on Saturday 5th November.

Prayer Vigil Aboriginal Deaths in Custody

This is a powerful opportunity to humbly come before God in prayer together. We will learn from and deeply listen to Aboriginal Christian Leaders, engage in prayer and lament through words, song and art, and receive inspiration from the strength and determination of Aboriginal communities who take action for justice. #JusticeforWalker #JusticeforFella #BanSpitHoods

Join us on Thursday 3rd November 7:30pm AEDT on Zoom for the 2022 Online Prayer Vigil for Aboriginal Deaths in Custody.

Aboriginal deaths in custody continues to be an ongoing injustice facing Aboriginal families and communities. Over 500 Aboriginal people have died in custody since the Royal Commission into Aboriginal Deaths in Custody released their report in 1991, with 339 recommendations. We grieve the lack of implementation of these recommendations by the Australian Government and the compounded grief that First Nations peoples continue to experience.

We are committed to partnering with God to see the flourishing of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples and communities:

- To see a society, and a justice system that pursues true justice - where all people are supported, valued and empowered.
- Where structural racism is a thing of the past.
- Where all people are given opportunities to flourish, rather than languishing in prison.
- And where children as young as 10 receive love and care rather than incarceration. Please join us in vision, prayer and action.

Sign up with your email. You will be sent the Zoom link closer to the date.

Taking them home

An exhibition at Toronto Library, by Create and Connect art group and Nikinpa ,with a focus on culturally appropriate sorry business.

The beautiful painted leaves are messages, colours and stories that connect back to country and help people in the grieving process. Each artist has developed a different style in painting leaves and has chosen the colours and patterns that connect with their own artist expression and story.

The leaves are created by the Create and Connect art group which is partnership program between Nikinpa Aboriginal Child and Family Centre and Relationships Australia. Painting the leaves is a partnership between the art group and Forensic medicine team which is part of NSW Health Pathology.

Now when an Aboriginal person passes, a gum leaf is selected for the family to take home and to go with the person who has passed away. These beautiful leaves as well as other art works the Nikinpa art group have created will be displayed as part of the taking them home exhibition.

When: Friday, 14 October 2022 - Sunday, 29 January 2023
