Missions: ABM Project for June

The Reverend Gloria Shipp, the first Aboriginal Woman to be ordained in the Anglican Church of Australia - Based in Dubbo in Central NSW Gloria maintains an active ministry that reaches out beyond the walls of the church. 'Jay Jays' is Gloria's affectionate title for the boys and young men she visits twice every week at the Orana Juvenile Justice Centre. With Bible talks, loss and grief workshops, screen printing classes and Sunday services once a month it's no wonder some of the boys nominate their visits from Gloria as a highlight of the week. While children are so important in Gloria's ministry, their elders are far from forgotten. The Elders' Outreach Group provides a space of community and fellowship. Participants look forward to excursions - with Gloria's husband Eddie driving the bus to places like the Wiradjuri Study Centre in Condoblin. Men's camps, women's camps, rallies, reconciliation luncheons, Women of the Bible talks and outdoor baptisms also dot Gloria's year, even before she attends to her national responsibilities as Chairperson of the National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Anglican Council (NATSIAC).
